Message from the Editor

Dear Readers,

As you can see from this issue's topics, Jo and I have been overcome by Pokémon fever, more so than Olympic Games fever. I will admit to being one of the two friends swiping away at the phone over dinner with Jo in the article, Pokémon GO Fever. I'm glad we were inspired to write Pokémon GO - related articles as it led us to Satoshi Tajiri, the creator of Pokémon. His Bazi chart looked less than ideal, but look at what he has achieved! It really underscores to me that nothing in life is written stone, and that we can always do something to better our lives. If we stay true to our passions, work with our strengths, and persevere with work we find meaningful, we can build lives and legacies that we can be proud of.

Love,

Eu Geen

Pokémon GO has become a global phenomenon and is one of the most used mobile apps, reportedly having been downloaded by more than 100 million people worldwide. Everyone seems to have become a “Pokemaniac.”

Pokémon GO launched on 6 July 2016. Surprisingly, this date just scraped through the the minimum requirements of the auspicious date selection technique of the 12 Day Officers (建除十二神) in the “Tong Shu” (通書). It falls short of the important Dong Gong Date Selection standard created by famous Chinese Astrologers of the Ming Dynasty. With its strong fan base arising from the original Pokémon role-playing games (RPGs) created by Satoshi Tajiri, to trading card games, animated television shows and movies, comic books, and toys, this minimum auspicious date influence from the 12 Day Officers was enough for Pokémon GO to garner massive popularity.

Under the 12 Day Officers date selection system, 6 July 2016 falls on a Danger Day. While Danger Day is inauspicious when it comes to dangerous activities such as high-risk sports, going for long distance journeys and sea sports, it still contains positive stars. One of these stars is Holy Heart (聖心). Holy Heart is good for fulfilling wishes and is traditionally used for religious worship. Its influence brings happiness and fulfillment. The game has had several unusual positive effects on communities and culture. It brought people together from all walks of life. Families are seen playing the game together in parks, bonding as they hunt down Pokémon. Businesses have benefited from the nearby presence of PokéStops. Some establishments have considered purchasing Lures to attract additional players to PokéStops on their property.

The Day Pillar of Earth Ox (己丑 Ji Chou) formed the Hexagram 25 named “Without Wrongdoing” (天雷無妄). Hexagram 25 indicates progress and success as well as rewards. It further indicates one who is innocent and free from any wrongdoing. The game brought its players to places of worship, as many of the PokéStops and Pokégymns are located there, which brought criticism by religious leaders. There were some other hiccups too. Just to name a few, the game sparked complaints from Dutch company ProRail, who said that players entered their railway tracks. Both Indian and Malaysian Islamic leaders told Indian and Malaysian Muslims to avoid the game because it was deemed demonic in nature. In Thailand, during the 2016 constitutional referendum polls, Pokémon GO players were told to refrain from entering polling stations. Despite all these negativity, many do not take the criticism seriously and the crowd continues to enjoy the game.

However, while hunting down your Pokémon on the street, be alert and mindful to the moving vehicles in your surroundings. The fact that the game launched on a Danger Day is a sign for you to be more careful about your safety. Your smartphone will buzz when a Pokémon appears and PokéStops will not run away, so watch where you are going first.

Elementary Level Date Selection: The Twelve Day Officers (建除十二神)

As you already know from the Pokémon GO article, there probably wasn't date selection done for the launch of Pokémon GO. However, it coincidentally fell on a Danger Day which was considered okay for launching a product. Danger Day is good for preparing for progress. It still brought certain positive effects to Pokémon GO.

The Danger Day is based on the Twelve Day Officers auspicious date selection method, which can be found in the Chinese Almanac. It was popularized during the Qing Dynasty in the book, Emperor's Four Treasuries (sì kù quánshū 四庫全書).

Here is a brief explanation of the Twelve Day Officers for easy reference.

Table: Twelve Day Officers

建除十二神 Twelve Day Officers		Attributes
Establish Day 建日 (Jian)		Establish Day is also known as Wang Ri and Guan Ri. It indicates prosperity. Establish Day is generally a good day for starting a new job, travelling or migrating to another country.

Remove Day 除日 (Chu)	Remove Day is useful for getting rid of something. It can be used for ground-breaking, the start of demolition work, conducting a sale to get rid of old stock and spring cleaning.
Full Day 満日 (Man)	Full Day indicates abundance. It is good for signing contracts, official openings, financial transactions, holding a house warming party, and debt-collection. In the old days when polygamy was acceptable, Full Day was used for marriage. Now Full Day is no longer used for marriage.
Balance Day 平日 (Ping)	Balance Day is suitable for activities that have a win-win outcome. It is a good day for marriage, starting construction or commencing a trip.
Stable Day 定日 (Ding)	In ancient China, Stable Day was used to sew the belts worn as part of government official uniforms. Stable Day was also used to celebrate men coming of age. Nowadays, Stable Day is good for study-related activities. It is generally a good day for all activities.
Initiate Day 執日 (Zhi)	In the old days, Initiate Day carries the meaning of “guard” and “success”. Today, it is good for starting a new project, accepting assignments, opening businesses or starting renovation works.
Destruction Day 破日 (Po)	Destruction Day, as the name implies, destroys. Today is good for demolishing a building or structure. Destruction Day usually has negative aspects because it is a Month Breaker Day, thus is not suitable for most activities.
Danger Day 危日 (Wei)	In the old days Danger Day was used for soldiers marching to war. Danger Day is not suitable for most activities that have an element of danger, especially adventurous sports. It is however suitable for planning, religious activities and groundbreaking.

建除十二神 Twelve Day Officers	Attributes
Success Day 成日 (Cheng)	Success Day is also known as Three Combo Day (三合日), Heavenly Doctor (天醫) and Heavenly Happiness (天喜). It was believed that this day can revive even the dead. Thus, Success Day is the most auspicious day and is suitable for all sorts of activities.
Receive Day 收日 (Shou)	Receive Day indicates receiving, rewards and being welcomed. Hence, Receive Day is good for collecting debts, applying for financial assistance, getting approval, closing a sale, asking for a raise, requesting a big favour, learning something, proposing marriage, commencing a course or starting a new job.
Open Day 開日 (Kai)	Open Day was viewed as the rise of the Yang Qi. This was important in the old days because Yang Qi represents male energy or men. This means that men will begin to prosper. So Open Day is generally regarded as an auspicious day. Today, it is good for worship, travelling, ground-breaking and opening a business.
Close Day 閉日 (Bi)	Close Day indicates when the Qi is leaving or becoming stagnant. Generally speaking, Close Day is not a good day, and should not be used for any significant activity.

The Twelve Day Officers (which can be found in the Tong Shu calendar) can be used to assist you in general date selection for your daily activities. For important occasions such as marriage, or opening a new business, consult a professional practitioner to help you select an auspicious date that best matches your Bazi Chart.

SATOSHI TAJIRI

Who is Satoshi Tajiri? Those who are Pokémon fans may know that he is the creator of Pokémon. Tajiri was born on August 28, 1965, in Tokyo. He grew up in Machida, Tokyo, which at the time was still a rural area. Below is Satoshi Tajiri's Bazi Chart.

Look at the three Growth Stars formed by the Tiger, Monkey and Snake zodiacs. Growth Star is also known as Sky Horse which indicates movement and travel. On the negative side, the star indicates childishness. The Tiger, Monkey and Snake zodiacs also form the Ungrateful Punishment. You can imagine how a traditional Japanese family would view a child who only enjoyed insect collecting, skipped classes and nearly did not graduate from high school. This was likely seen as ungratefulness by a family that values traditional professions. Satoshi Tajiri did not walk the conservative path as most people did during that period. He has stated that if he did not design video games, he would most likely be in the anime field which is also not considered a golden bowl by most Asian families.

You can say that in Tajiri's mind, he has never grown up. This is largely the influence of the three Growth Stars in his Bazi Chart. But he has made this influence work out for the best in his career. Tajiri wanted his games to allow children to have the feeling of catching and collecting creatures as he had. The character of Ash Ketchum (named Satoshi in Japan), is based on Tajiri's image of himself as a child.

There is also a good formation called Eating God controlling Seven Killings in Tajiri's Bazi Chart. It indicates strong intelligence. It is an ability to conceptualize an idea. Tajiri first conceived the idea of Pokémon in 1990, and successfully completed the game in 1996. Since then Pokémon has grown by leaps and bounds.

People always pursue good fortune but there is no perfect Bazi Chart. However, you can make the best of what you have with hard work and perseverance down a path you believe in. Satoshi Tajiri did what he liked, persisted along his path and achieved success beyond most people's wildest dreams, all with a not-so-great Bazi Chart. What possibilities then, lie in store for the rest of us?

HOW WILL PLAYING POKÉMON GO AFFECT YOU?

In this more light-hearted edition of BaziChic Digital Magazine, let's have some fun and see how playing Pokémon GO will affect you based on your Bazi Chart structure. Should you play more or play less? Or not play at all?

Table 1: Effects of Pokémon GO

Influence	Pokémon GO will help you to relax your mind and think out of the box.	Being a disciplined person, you play moderately. There are no worries that you will become addicted.	✓

Wealth	Pokémon GO gives you a good reason to exercise. Take a stroll every day and go hunting for Pokémon. It helps you to de-stress and make friends. Learn to enjoy life.	You may feel bored playing the game after a while as you see no monetary gain. You may begin counting how much The Pokémon Company and Niantic are earning. You start thinking that maybe you should start one of these online games too.	✓
Companion	Playing the game helps you connect to others and share your joy with others.	You can become competitive trying to get all types of Pokémon to show-off. You do not have the concept of when to play and when to stop.	✗
Resource	Playing the game brings you out of your rabbit hole. You begin to connect with others since you now have common topics to share with others. You don't feel out of place anymore.	You always think out of the box. But now you think out of the universe. Hey! Come back down to Earth. Pokémon GO is just a game.	✓
Output	You are the one most likely to start playing Pokémon GO first. You know where the most PokéStops are, and share this information with your friends and family. You bring the joy of playing the game to all others.	You are addicted! You are also the person most likely to buy the items in the App such as coins, incense, potions etc. Look after your pocket. Do not spend rashly.	✗

It is actually quite easy. Get your Bazi Chart ready. Your structure is extracted from your Month Branch. In the example below, the Month Branch is the Monkey Zodiac. Below the Monkey zodiac is written HO (傷官), which stands for Hurting Officer. Hurting Officer belongs to the Output Structure (refer to Table 2: Identifying your Bazi Chart Structure in page 15).

But no matter what your chart structure, as with anything else in life, moderation is key. So go ahead and jump on the Pokémon GO bandwagon, but make sure to play moderately, and play with common sense. Enjoy the positive aspects of the game, and there are many - the connection to other players, family bonding if you play as a family, the extra exercise from hunting and hatching Pokémon, a newfound patience with traffic jams (they're great because they help you hatch your eggs) and getting out and exploring new places in the neighbourhood and city. But try to avoid the negative aspects - endangering yourself and others, and letting it interfere with work, your finances or relationships.

WHAT TYPE OF POKÉMON DOES YOUR DESTINY ATTRACT?

Two friends were busy sweeping their fingers over their smartphones. They got very excited, when once in a while, their smartphone buzzed. Some interesting creatures appeared on the smartphone screen and they were using a ball to catch it. Our dinner and conversation were interrupted by these activities every now and then. Attracted by their excitement, I too searched for the game in the Appstore and had it downloaded.

Yes! I'm talking about Pokémon GO and I became one of the Pokémaniacs that night. I have started going for walks nearby my home again. I used to go for morning walks as a form of exercise but now it is for the purpose of hunting down Pokémon. I go hiking while holding out my iPhone to see whether there is a PokéStop or Pokémon nearby. I also purposely made a trip with my nephew and my niece to the KLCC Park just to hunt for Pokémon. It was fun!

A friend sent me a list of Pokémon, categorized into different types based on their characteristics, nature and habitat. Hey! The Pokémon can actually be categorized into the Five Elements of the producing and controlling cycle. While playing the game, you may be wondering why you are getting more of a certain type of Pokémon and not the others. This may be the answer...

AUSPICIOUS DATES FOR FENG SHUI ACTIVATION TO SELL PROPERTY FAST

This is an update on the previous article, “Feng Shui Tips to Sell Your Property Fast.” Just in case you missed the previous auspicious dates or if you have not managed to sell your property yet, here are some auspicious dates and sectors for more opportunity in property deals. Refer to Table 1 that shows the auspicious dates and sectors. This activation can also help those who are looking to purchase property or who are seeking a place to rent.

Table 1: Auspicious Dates And Sectors For Feng Shui Activation

Sector	Date	Auspicious Time	Not Suitable for Zodiac Sign
East 2	20 September 2016	01:30	Pig
	21 September 2016	17:30	Rat
Southeast 3	21 October 2016	09:30	Horse
	26 October 2016	01:30 or 11:30	Pig
East 2 or Southeast 3	13 November 2016	11:30	Snake

Flying Star 2 is good for property income, deals and investments. But this star contains a negative side. Flying Star 2 represents an illness star. Avoid activating the East in September for those homes or offices that have negative features such as construction, lamp posts, pylons and missing East sectors. Similarly, avoid activating the Southeast in October for those homes or offices that have the same negative features.

You can also use these sectors and dates to activate your wealth luck.

With the tips above, we hope that you will successfully sell off your property.

DATO' LEE CHONG WEI VERSUS LIN DAN

If you are a fan of badminton or a Malaysian, you will surely know Dato' Lee Chong Wei (Dato' is a title bestowed for services rendered to the country). He is a Malaysian singles badminton player. Dato' Lee was a silver medallist in both the 2008 and 2012 Olympic Games. He is the sixth Malaysian to win an Olympic medal and the first Malaysian to reach the finals in the men's singles badminton event, ending Malaysia's Olympic medal drought since the 1996 Games.

In the badminton semifinals of the Rio Olympics, a friend of mine, Lee Yen, pulled out a Qi Men Chart for 19 August 2016 at 8 p.m. to forecast the winner. She shared her reading with us. To us Malaysians, the semifinal was the match, because Dato' Lee was playing his number one rival, Lin Dan of China. He has always been one step behind his arch enemy and good friend and had lost the previous two Olympic finals to Lin, even though he had reigned as the world number one for much longer than Lin.

Born in 1982, Dato' Lee's year stem is Ren Water. Lin Dan who is one year younger than Dato' Lee has the Gui Water year stem. They are both considered guests in the context of the Rio Olympics, so the Heavenly Stem (Top Stem) is used as a reference point for these players in the Qi Men Chart in the next page. Gui Water which represents Lin Dan is located in the North Palace. Ren Water which represents Dato' Lee is located in the South Palace.

Both Palaces in the Qi Men Chart were not in good positions, with the South Palace, Dato' Lee, receiving more stress caused by Lin Dan in the North Palace. It was a very intense match.

There was a Death and Emptiness (DE) sign in the North Palace. DE can mean that the person is not prepared or that his mind and heart are not focused. Thus my friend predicted that for this round Dato' Lee will win and sure enough he did. He won with a 15-21, 21-11, 22-20 victory over Lin Dan.

Meanwhile our Dato' Lee clinched a silver medal after losing to Chen Long from China. He is heartbroken as this is probably his last Olympics. But I think it was a good fight. Bravo Dato' Lee! I'm not a fan of badminton but like most Malaysians, we love you for all the sweat, effort and determination that you have put in for the country.

A VISIT TO AN ORGANIC FARM

The durian season is here again in Malaysia! A friend who is a durian lover organized a group tour to an Organic Farm in Pahang. Excited for a durian feast, we headed off early at around 9 o'clock on a Sunday morning.

I didn't pay attention to the Feng Shui of the place when I first arrived. We were brought to a small building which housed a small room and a toilet. In that room, the owner, let's call him Mr Tan, explained to us what organic farming is truly about, how his farm is different from other organic farms and the health benefits of eating organic food. It was an eye-opening and very educational experience.

After the introduction, Mr Tan brought us around the farm. I was hoping that I could catch some wild Pokémon but there was no wi-fi here. So I packed my iPhone away and diligently followed Mr Tan around. He showed us what the durian flower looked like. Although the durian is known as the King of Fruits in Malaysia, this is the first time I'm seeing it hanging on the tree. He also showed us the rambutan, mangosteen and duku langsung trees, from which we could just pluck fruit and eat as we went along. His farm is 11 acres in size. We didn't get to see all 11 acres, but we were already sweating from all the walking we've done.

Before we knew it, we had come back full circle from where we started. The food buffet began at the side of the building. We filled our tummies with the delicious fruits and durians. After the great feast, I had free time to walk around. This was when I started to pay attention to the surroundings.

The small building does not really have a clear façade so it was very hard to determine

Using QMDJ to determine the Landform of the Organic Farm

QMDJ Chart: 21 August 2016, 11:00

the front/ main entrance. At first I thought the place where we parked our cars near the small building was the front of the property, which will determine the facing direction. But when I looked at the building properly, it looked more like the side of the property than the front. So I considered the only door to the room as the main entrance. It is also facing the gate, the only entrance to the farm which is the Southwest direction. In the period 8, this direction is timely and thus should be beneficial to the occupant. However rows of papaya trees are planted in front. The straight rows of papaya trees inadvertently formed what is called the “pulling nose formation.” This formation pulls away all the Qi that is supposed to go into the main door. This is a negative sign.

The whole farm is actually surrounded by mountainous areas. The parking area is actually a bright hall. As I carefully studied the mountains, I discovered that they are actually too high. The parking area is unable to receive the Qi from the mountains opposite. The Qi from the mountains are still moving and are not ready to settle yet. As I was not really sure where the main Qi was coming from, I decided to pull out the Qi Men Chart to compare with what I have seen. In the Qi Men Chart, the Palace at this direction showed the Black Tortoise Deity in Delusion Door which indicates that the Qi is negative, aggressive and also blocked. The Palace was also in Death and Emptiness so no Qi is available.

The Qi Men Chart showed that the Qi should be coming from the South which is also at the higher ground. However, there is a Geng Stem in that Palace. Thus, it became Sha Qi. The back of the small building is actually in the South. As I checked it, I saw a line of electrical poles cutting into the building. The poles were camouflaged by trees and creepers. On the higher ground there is also a “bird house”, a building used to attract swiftlets to build their nests. Although it is actually an ecology technique to control the pests around the farm, it became a hindrance to the smooth flowing of Qi.

There is one positive sign spotted by my friend when he took a picture of the durian trees. There is a Wood Mountain spotted further away. The Wood Mountain is formed by the Tang Lang Star. This mountain is actually good for reputation and recognition. And you know what? Mr Tan’s farm is the only recognized and certified organic farm in this area by the Department of Agriculture Malaysia.

Although Mr Tan does not operate the financial side of the business in this small building, it is still important to the business. Considering the Feng Shui surrounding the building in this farm, it is not really a wealth generating property. The fruit plantation may not be viable if it continues to run as a farm tourism business. Is it possible to improve the Feng Shui of the small building? Of course.

However, given the Feng Shui environment of this farm, it is actually best to focus on the selling and distribution of the fruits to the local market rather than tapping into the orchard touring business.

There is however, one more interesting fact about the farm. The value of the land had actually increased a lot although the farm did not generate much business income. The land value can actually fetch about RM4 million, although Mr Tan said that it was worth a slightly lower value. Do you want to know how to read this from the Qi Men Chart? FINDING THE 十神 TEN GODS (THE OUTPUT ELEMENT)

There are altogether 10 types of Day Masters arising from the two different polarities (Yin and Yang) of the Five Elements. The Ten Gods are derived from the interaction of the Five Elements with the Day Master. Each of these Five Elements can support, destroy, control, or exhaust one another.

In this issue's Bazi 101, we want to explore the Output element. The Output element is derived from the element that the Day Master produces in the supporting cycle of the Five Elements. For example, the Water Day Master produces the Wood element. Hence, Wood represents Output to Water Day Master people. The Output element is further divided into Yin and Yang polarities, resulting in the Hurting Officer and Eating God. Eating God has the same polarity as the Day Master. Hurting Officer is of the opposite polarity to the Day Master. Table 1 shows the Day Masters' Output elements.

Table 1: The Output Elements of the 10 Day Masters.

FACE READING

WHAT YOUR EYEBROWS SAY ABOUT YOU

Western science has found that people react to faces without realizing it. It's an unconscious act. Since people already unconsciously make judgements based on looks anyway, why not give yourself a little edge over others. Knowledge of face reading can help you deal with people more easily.

In Face Reading, the eyebrow can tell a lot about a person.

In our previous face reading article, we talked a little bit about the personality of customers and how to best approach them. The eyebrows add another layer of information to people's personalities. If your eyes are the window to your soul, your eyebrows are the window frames. It reflects your mental outlook and point of view.

There are many more subcategories of eyebrows but below is the five basic type of eyebrows. Most people will fall into these five categories. Choose the eyebrows that most look like your own and enjoy reading about yourself.

No 1: Curved eyebrows

Soft curved eyebrows were the most preferred eyebrows to have in the olden days of China. People with this type of eyebrows have a friendlier personality. They connect and relate to the world through their understanding of people. They also understand ideas or grab a theory better than others.

No 2: Straight eyebrows

Straight eyebrowed people tend to be direct. They are factual and logical. These are the people who think with their minds and not their hearts. They mentally evaluate all hard facts without letting emotion effect their judgement.

No 3: Angled eyebrows

People with angled eyebrows usually have strong leadership qualities. Sometimes this type of eyebrows causes fear in others because they look stern and aggressive. People with this type of eyebrows are active, impatient and ambitious.

No 4: Sloping eyebrows

People with sloping eyebrows are responsible and caring. They work well with others. They are usually happiest when surrounded by their loved ones. However, people with this type of eyebrows have lower self-esteem. They feel insecure easily. They can sometimes come across as clingy.

No 5: Upward slanting eyebrows

People with the upward slanting eyebrows love competition. They are enterprising. Thus, they make good entrepreneurs and also generous bosses. Upward arching eyebrows can also show a strong work ethic. They are very determined people and are able to take a lot of stress.

LAW OF ATTRACTION with a Twist

法奇門 FA QI MEN

WHY HAVEN'T YOUR WISHES BEEN FULFILLED YET?

Awish is actually only a beginning. Most people see a wish as the end result; hence, they feel that they cannot obtain what they wish for. To have your wish fulfilled, consider these important factors.

“Give yourself permission to trust your voice, step into your power, and know that what you are doing matter.”
~ Kelly Rae Roberts

1. Give yourself permission to wish

To see your wish come true, you need to give yourself full permission to wish. “Optimism” and “realism” can actually be on the same side as long as you fully believe in your wishes. Often people do not see their wishes come true because they wish halfheartedly. This leads to the second important factor.

*"You must find the place inside yourself where nothing is impossible."
~ Deepak Chopra*

*"The most fantastic magical things can happen, and it all starts with a wish."
~ Pinocchio*

*"Respond; don't react.
Listen; don't talk.
Think; don't assume."
~ Raji Lukkooor*

2. Believe in the possibility

In life, there are many possibilities. Making a wish to be famous will not work if you just do not see yourself that way. There is a strong link between optimism and success. People who are optimistic about life are more likely to perceive greater opportunities and pursue them. So believe in yourself. Build your self-confidence with daily affirmations. If you don't believe you can achieve your wish, who will? You will need to rely on yourself to make your wish come true.

3. Make one wish

Make one wish at a time. A single wish gives you more clarity. Sometimes you may need to redefine how this wish of yours comes to you. Frame your wish in positive terms. Simply making too many wishes will only clutter your mind. You will feel yourself at a loss as to what you really want in life. If you want your wish to come true overnight, you'll need to invest not only your thoughts but also take action to turn that wish into reality.

4. Being Proactive

Write your wish down. Make them as tangible as possible. Be proactive in getting your wish to come true. Just writing down that you want to be famous will not do. It is flimsy and without substance. Define your wish clearly, such as being famous on stage, in a film or just in YouTube. Be honest about where you are now and take steps to bring that wish nearer.
