Message from the Editor

Dear Readers,

This month's article "Health is Wealth" really struck a chord with me. I have been struggling with losing that extra 10 pounds for years, and find it really hard to find time to exercise and go to bed before midnight. Yet, what has consistently struck me about the daily routines of successful famous people, is that they make time for exercise. Barack Obama, for example finds the time to exercise every morning, despite his very busy job as the President of the United States. I'm also a big fan of Laura Vanderkam's books on time management (168 Hours, I Know How She Does It), which also show that successful people get plenty of exercise and enough sleep.

So, I am resolved to improve my luck through a commitment to better health - daily exercise and a reasonable bedtime. I hope you will join me too.

Love,

Eu Geen

Health is Wealth

You will often hear the popular saying, “Health is Wealth.” Health is actually a state of complete physical, mental and social well-being. When you lose your health, you will find that you lose all happiness.

Mahatma Gandhi also said, “It is health which is real wealth, and not pieces of gold and silver”. This is because health is more important than wealth. A wealthy person can afford many luxury goods such as big cars, large houses, expensive jewellery and other branded goods but he will not be able to enjoy all these luxuries if he is not healthy.

And you will find that one of the important factors for good luck is being healthy and maintaining good health.

In the study of Bazi, your body parts can be divided into the Five Elements based on the Five Elements theory. Every time we take an action there is an energy reaction to this action. This energy, like our body parts, can be divided into the Five Elements too. Therefore, how you live and take care of your body is important. Your ill health does not just happen overnight. It is the accumulated result of your daily actions.

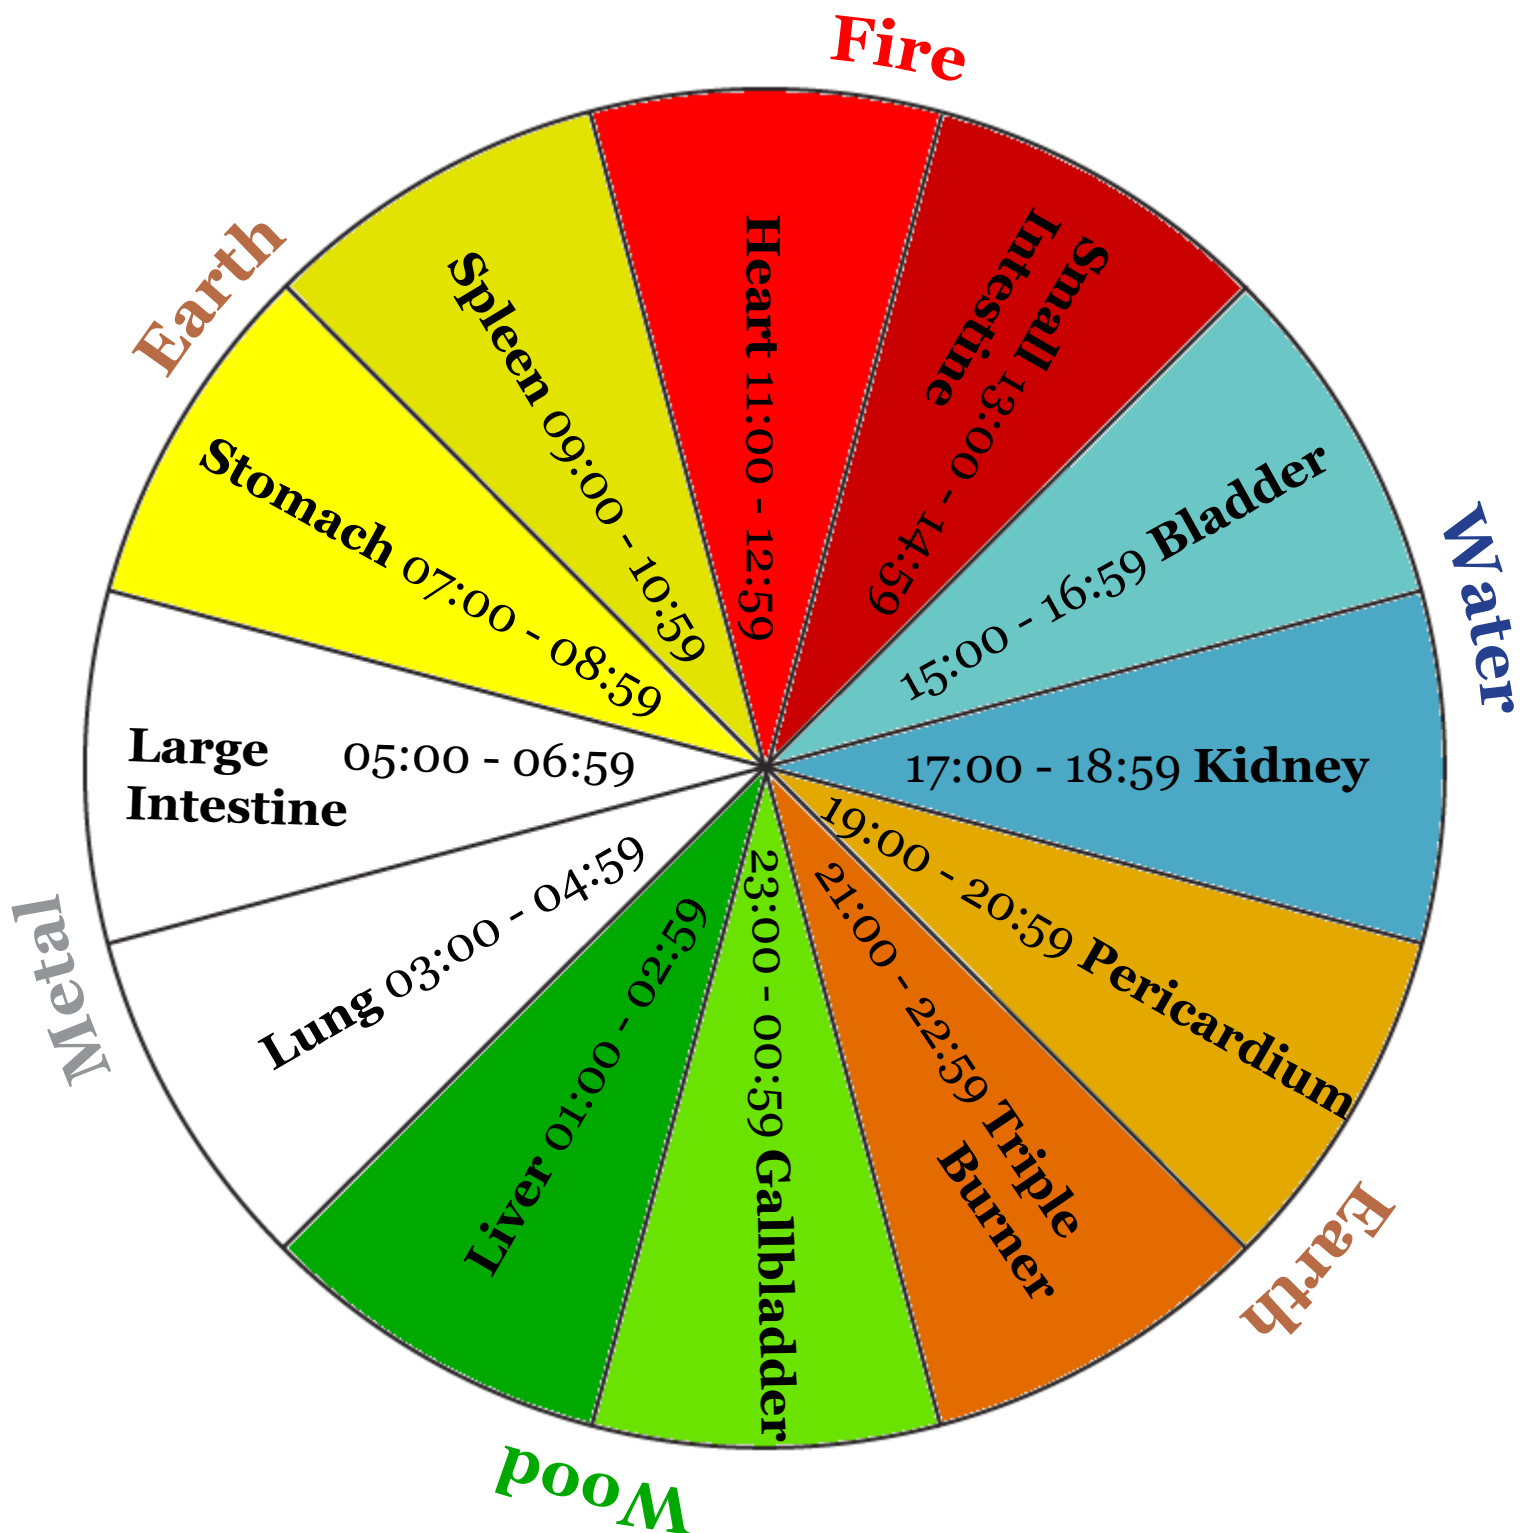

In an interview with Yahoo, sleep expert Shawn Stevenson stated that the perfect time to go to sleep is 10 p.m. You should sleep at least 8 hours and the perfect sleep cycle is from 10 p.m. till 6 a.m. This is because your body starts its major healing and rejuvenating during these 8 hours of sleep. Your body heals faster during this time too.

Figure 1 is a pie chart of the Chinese 12 hours of the day. Each of these hours can be related to a person’s body part based on the Five Elements. While you are sleeping each of your body parts will heal and recharge. The best time is between 10 p.m. to 6 a.m. where major organs of the human body detox and recharge.

During your waking hours, different parts of your bodies will heal too but at a slower rate. When you find that you are sleepy during your normal waking hours, your body is actually telling you the body part which is related to that hour is weak. If you find yourself wide awake or having insomnia during the normal sleeping hours, the body part related to that hour is actually having a harder time healing.

A Simple Guide To Investing

Many have shown an interest in Qi Men Dun Jia ('QMDJ') Forecasting for investment purposes, so I've decided to start a series on this in the BaziChic Digital Magazine. Although QMDJ is a good guide to investing, I still need to stress that proper understanding, careful study and analysis are still needed for investment success. Information you acquire about your investment will indicate whether you have made the right decision to go ahead with your investment choice. Sometimes your research will call for you to exit the investment.

Let's take a look at the QMDJ chart on 18 May 2016 at 10:32, and how this chart can give you some simple investment guidance. For investment related matters, the focus point to look into is the 生門 Life Door. Therefore, the Southwest Palace (Earth Element) is used for this reading. Southwest Palace does not show positive structures. The 蓬

Heavenly Grass Star with 合 Six Harmony Deity reside in the Southwest Palace. This indicates a possible merger or take-over or even share buyback.

Another important focus point to look at is the Palace that contains the 戊 Wu Earth Heavenly Stem. Co-incidentally it falls into the same Southwest Palace (Earth Element). Usually this indicates that the share price is already at its peak or very near the upward resistance level. There is very little room for price to increase further at this point or at least until it can break through the price upward resistance level.

Did you notice that there is a 空 Death & Emptiness sign on the Southwest Palace? This is where the importance of your knowledge and analysis kicks in. Death & Emptiness can represent many things. It can mean that the stock is suspended for the time being, and you are not able to buy it. If this is not so, beware. It can mean that the possible merger or take-over is just a rumour. It also means that the money you have invested in this stock will result in a loss of wealth.

Based on the Qi Men Chart, we can also tell who is likely to purchase the stock or get caught in the downside of the investment. The Qi Men Map has a strong influence on people who are born with the Year Stems 戊 Wu, 壬 Ren and 己 Ji.

Conclusion: You still need to know what is happening to your investment.

QMDJ Forecasting gives a straight forward and simple answer. It is easy to understand and use. You can learn QMDJ Forecasting or consult a QMDJ consultant about your investment. A Journey to Discovering Good Luck

Tired from the hustle and bustle of life, a young man resigned from his current job. He decided to embark on a journey to find out what life is all about. He searched everywhere for an answer but to no avail. One day he met a boy who pointed him to the mountain. The little boy said, “There is an old geomancy master living in the mountain. We call him Master Zen. Maybe he can answer your questions.” He thanked the boy and headed to the mountain.

After a day of searching, he finally found the old master. Upon seeing him, he said, “Oh! Master Zen! What is my life to be?”

So Master Zen replied, “There are fifteen verses that can change your life and help you attain good luck.”

一命 First is Life

Life is about who you are. When you are born, there is some part of your life that is already fated. If you are born an African, in Africa, you are destined to have the life of an African. You cannot choose your parents. Chinese who travel thousands of miles to the United States to find a living will not feel exactly the same as white Americans who live in their homeland. If you are born poor, you need effort to make a better living. If you are born into a rich family, you will have no worries about whether there is enough food on the table and enough warm clothing for the winter. This is the written part of your destiny.

But all these are not important. Time is the most important factor in the cycle of nature. Time and space determine the nature of things. Part of your life is determined by your character. Although characters are innate in nature, they consist of both the positive and negative. Positive characteristics can be instilled while negative characteristics can be minimized. This is the unwritten part of your destiny that you can work on to have a better a life.

This is why every part of your life is very much in your hands. Be responsible for yourself.

二運 Second is Luck

Luck comes second. Luck is part of the time and space that determines the nature of things. Often people see obstacles as bad luck while wealthy people always have the best of good luck. Wealthy families have more connections, encounter more noblemen and opportunities. To some extent this is very true if you see “being lucky” as such.

However, good luck is actually the ability to deal with problems and grow as a person. Why do rich people seem to enjoy better luck? This is because they see problems that can be settled with money not as problems, even if they do not have that amount of money at that point in time. Rich people focus on solutions and deal with problems. Thus they can take the pressure of handling problems with billions of dollars at stake. Whereas most people only see having no money as the biggest problem. This is also why most people feel that they are going through bad luck most of the time, because of the focus on money and not on the solution.

Good luck is the ability to grow to become a better person and being fulfilled.

三風水 Third comes Feng Shui

Feng Shui relates to your home. If your home has a negative affect on your family, personal health and mental state, you will naturally have more worries and insecurity. You cannot concentrate on your work or studies, thus your career is affected. Like a chain effect, everything seems to encounter obstacles.

Therefore, good Feng Shui is important to your home. While most people do not have the luxury of moving into a house with good external Feng Shui, they still have 30% control of what is inside of their home. Every home has some good sectors.

You will notice that poor people or people going through bad luck usually have more stuff than others in their home.

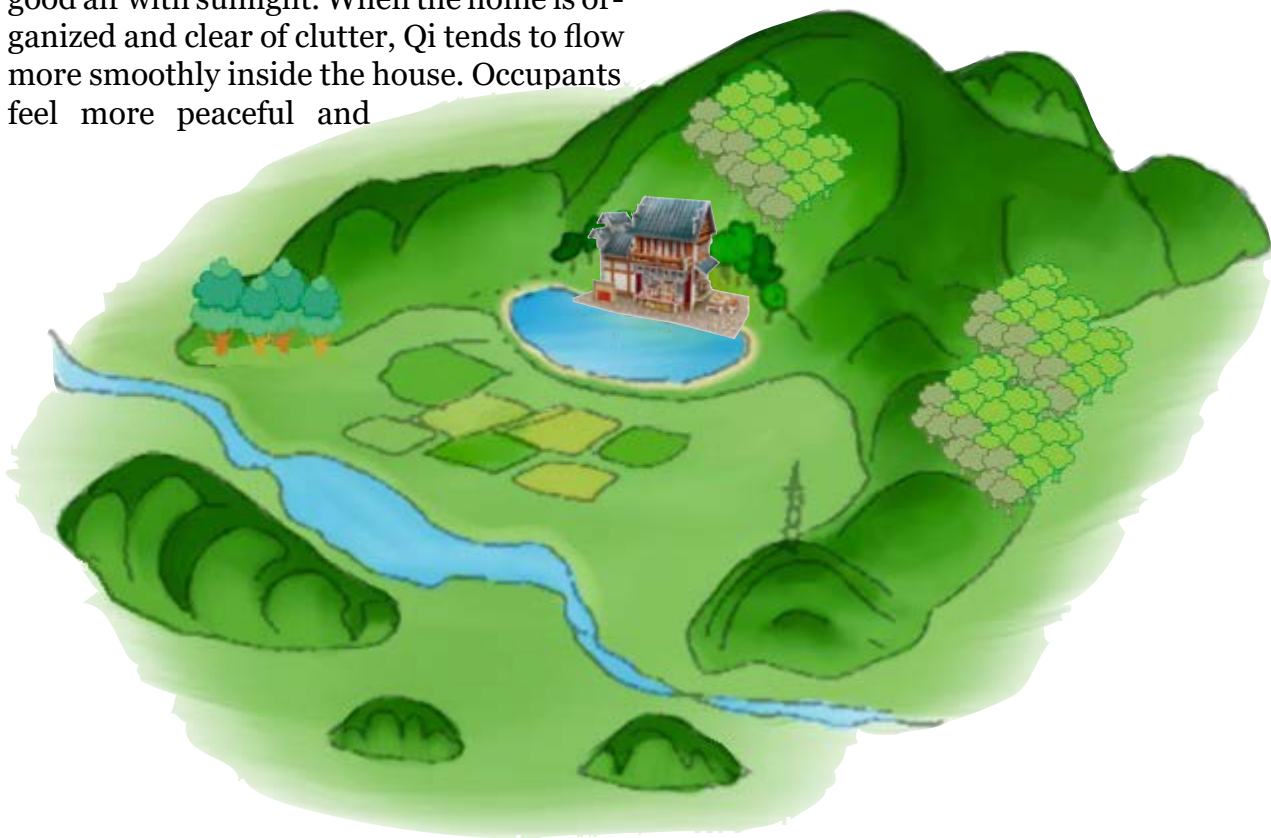

Their place is cluttered with unused stuff. Qi is stagnated and blocked. These people complain but give up their power to do something about their life.

Sometimes good Feng Shui can simply mean good air with sunlight. When the home is organized and clear of clutter, Qi tends to flow more smoothly inside the house. Occupants feel more peaceful and happy. When people are happier everything seems to work out. Good things continue to come.

The next time you feel unlucky and feel that your home has bad Qi, throw away the unused stuff. Let the energy flow.

四積陰德 Fourth is related to Hidden Virtue

Most people relate the fourth verse to being charitable. Actually hidden virtue governs not only being charitable. It includes righteousness, morality, integrity, dignity, rectitude, honour, decency, respectability, nobility, worthiness and more. Even patience is a virtue.

Education comes after hidden virtue. He will not be successful and attain good name, without virtue. Even gangsters have a code of honour and righteousness.

“But Master Zen, I already know these...,” the young man stopped the master half-way through his explanation.

“I see, you are already bored... Hahaha!

Look for a businessman called Vincent. He will show you the rest of what you can do to have a good life.”

So the young man travelled back to the village. He met the little boy again. He asked the little boy if he knew of any businessman named Vincent. The little boy shook his head and said, “Maybe Louis can help you. He is a businessman too. He always comes to our village to buy supplies. He might be here tomorrow.”

So the young man took a night’s rest in this village. The next morning as he strolled in the streets, the excited little boy came running to him, shouting “Louis is here. He is just over at the farm not far away. Let me bring you to him.”

The young man followed the little boy to the farm. The little boy introduced Louis to him. The young man says, "Hi, I'm Brendon. Nice to meet you. I'm looking for a businessman named Vincent who can help me answer some of the matters of what life is about."

He noticed that Louis is well mannered and popular with the village people. He had a likeable personality. His easy going manner put people at ease, and everyone wanted to be his friend.

Louis laughed and said, "The only businessman I know with that name is my father. He likes to share his life experiences. Maybe he is the person you are seeking. He has already retired. Nowadays, he likes to fish at the river over there. Walk straight ahead for 15 minutes and you will see him."

So Brendon set off to the river. After walking for a while he saw an old man fishing.

Brendon waved and said, "Hi, Uncle. Are you Vincent? Your son said that I can find you here." "Yes, I am," said Vincent.

Brendon asked, "Do you know Master Zen?"

"Oh, the old man living in the mountain. He always says that I am lucky." Vincent laughed.

Brendon said excitedly, "Then you can tell me how to achieve success and a good life."

Vincent said, "Well... I'm not sure what you want, but to me success is a journey and so is life. I think there are three things you must always hold on to, to enjoy a good life."

五讀書 Fifth is about Education

Education helps a person overcome ignorance and become wise. Often education can help a person change his destiny. But most people stop learning once they are out of school. They are contented with their knowledge. Our surrounding environment is always changing. Getting a degree is just the basic step before setting off into society. Learning is a life-long journey. What you have learned can help you create a good reputation for yourself. Everything can be a learning experience. Once your mind stops believing that you can learn new things, your life will become stagnant.

“Another important thing to take note of is one’s reputation,” said Vincent. “My son is very popular among the villagers. He has quite a reputation there, so much so that his wife is not happy, especially when he is around the girls.

六名 Sixth is one’s reputation

A good reputation in business and work will naturally lead to you having the help of others, as everyone is willing to associate with you. This is an indisputable fact. Even if you have a good reputation, some people may not like you. Some may hate you because of your flawless reputation. Do what you think is best but know that you cannot please everyone.

Some reputation can be bought, such as special titles. Many may want to associate with you because of your money and title, but these people may not be genuine. They see you as someone who can be beneficial to them so they want to associate with you. There is no right or wrong on this matter. It’s just that in this case you must constantly show that you have value. It can be a tiring job.

Some people are notorious. They are tough and will do anything to achieve their goals. You may not like these people, but sometimes these people are very useful when you want to handle tough or sticky situations.

Your Reputation is your Wealth

TIDY

七相 Seventh is your Image

Your image can help you give a good impression to others. People are more willing to associate with a neat and tidy person than a person who is unkempt. A good image will help others accept you more easily. Image not only governs your physical appearance but also your attitude. Image can be temporary, but if you constantly project the same image, it can become your reputation.

“So what do you think, Brendon? Do you have a good reputation? Do you have a strong image that people can recognize instantly? Or are you just one person in a sea of people? These three factors may not be the instant formula to success and the good life, but they will open doors everywhere you go.”

Brendon replied, “I have never paid much attention to the points you have told me. My parents have always drummed into my head the importance of education, how you present yourself and how it is important to maintain a good name. I know it is important but somehow after school and starting work, these became secondary. I will give more thought on it. Sorry for taking away all your fishing time. It is already late.”

“Anyway all the things I mentioned can set you on the path of success but it may not lead to fulfillment. If you have the time, fly to Northern China and look for a monk named San. If you are looking for fulfillment in life, he may be a better person to help you.”

Brendon said, “Alright, I will. Thank you very much for your time.”

ENHANCE YOUR LIFE BY MAXIMISING THE BENEFITS OF INTERNAL FENG SHUI!

A little knowledge about internal Feng Shui can give you an edge in your life. While 70% of your home's Feng Shui depends on the external environment, you still have a lot of control over the remaining 30% of Feng Shui that is based on the interior of your home.

In the past few years, there have been many new property developments with exciting designs and beautiful as well as unique interior makeovers. Sales of these properties consist mainly of purchases for one's own residence and investment. In fact, the property market has been booming on the back of property investments for many years.

Whether you buy property with the intention of living in it or for investment purposes, it is to your advantage to know how to apply Feng Shui to bring positive influence to the property. Having positive Feng Shui influences in your home or property is important for home owners and property investors. A positive Feng Shui environment enhances your life, ensuring a smooth career path, helps you to obtain continuous increases in income and promotes harmonious relationships at home. Properties with good Feng Shui characteristics also ensure that investors acquire courteous tenants who pay the rent on time.

Feng Shui is the art of tapping into positive Qi and living harmoniously with the environment. Your living environment can provide a powerful influence on your life. The faster you embrace art of living with positive Feng Shui, the easier you can manifest better balance in your life.

Location is extremely important in the property market. The same understanding fits into Feng Shui applications as well. The good thing about interior Feng Shui is that you can change and alter the interior of your home to suit the flow of internal energy. However, the same cannot be applied to the external environment. Imagine removing a flyover near your property that creates a direct “Sha Qi” to your house.

Having sound and applicable Feng Shui knowledge will help you to identify a property's imperfections, and find ways to counter and minimise any flaws by applying appropriate Feng Shui measures around the property.

Feng Shui is not necessarily difficult to grasp. First, there is no such thing as perfect Feng Shui. Everyone should know that this knowledge can help you to identify the property's strengths and weaknesses, thus maximising the property's potential and finding solutions to the weaknesses.

Eight Mansions Feng Shui is one of the easier and more popular methods used to determine the good and bad locations within a property. There are a total of eight types of houses under the Eight Mansions Feng Shui system. The eight types of houses are divided by the House Gua. Each House Gua indicates the favourable and unfavourable sectors of the property. First, look out from the house's front direction. The overall house front orientation is the Facing direction. Keep in mind that the main door direction is not the Facing direction. Once the house's Facing direction has been determined, the house's Sitting direction is the direct opposite of the house's Facing direction. The Sitting direction is the reference point used to determine the House Gua.

Most people think that when Life Gua and the House Gua do not match up, the house is not suitable for them to live in. This is not true and there is nothing to worry about. The House Gua always takes precedence over the Life Gua. It is only an added advantage if these two elements complement each other. Again let me stress that location takes precedence over direction in Feng Shui, thus, the sectors inside the house will have a stronger influence than your Life Gua direction.

Take note of the four auspicious sectors (refer to the the 8 types of House Gua on page 9 and 10) that bring different kinds of good influence to the occupants of a home:

1. Life Generating (生氣 Sheng Qi)

The energy from this sector attracts prosperity, vitality, respectability and reputation. Generally this is a good location for your front door.

2. Heavenly Doctor (天醫 Tian Yi)

This sector direction fosters good health. Use of this sector promotes patience, an agreeable nature, gratitude, security and self-confidence. Generally this is a good position to place your stove. This is also a good sector for the bed to ensure good health.

3. Longevity (延年 Yan Nian)

This sector enhances the quality of relationships in the family, promotes longevity and self-sufficiency. This is a good location for the master bedroom. This is also a good sector for adolescents going through growing pains.

4. Stability (伏位 Fu Wei)

This sector fosters overall harmony, peace and stability. This energy brings about peace. This location is considered a good site for an altar.

Take note of the four inauspicious sectors (refer to the 8 types of House Gua on page 19 and 20) that bring different kinds of negative influence to the occupants of a home:

1. Mishaps (祸害 Huo Hai)

The energy in this sector is considered the least harmful but has been known to lead to all kinds of difficulties and frustrations. Persons under this influence may tire easily and feel insecure.

2. Five Ghosts (五鬼 Wu Gui)

The energy in this sector generates influence that can lead to fire, loss of income, and burglary. It also causes quarrels and misunderstandings at home and at work. Generally you should avoid placing the stove here.

3. Six Killings (六煞 Liu Sha)

This sector represents scandals, missed opportunities, legal entanglements and illnesses. Persons under this influence may experience fitful sleep, lack of focus and lethargy in their everyday being and may even develop alcoholism. Generally it is good to place the bathroom or storeroom in this sector. Having a bathroom here will suppress its negative effects.

4. Life Threatening (绝命 Jue Ming)

This is the most harmful and dangerous sector. The energies here can have a bad impact on finances and careers. Persons under this influence can experience difficulties in every endeavour which can lead to depression, mental illness, accidents and suicidal feelings.

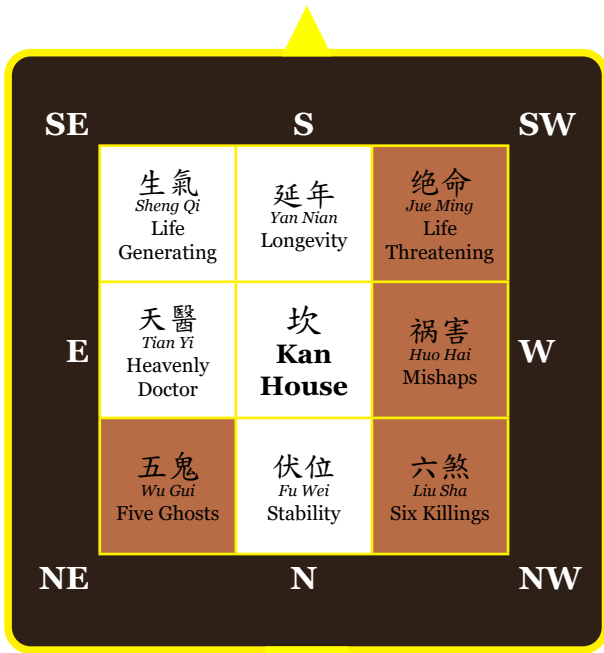

As a property investor, ensure that you purchase properties with the three important factors - main door, bedrooms and kitchen in the auspicious sectors. Remember! You want a good tenant who pays the rent on time and who will take good care of your home.

If you are a home owner who has already bought your home, try to use the auspicious sectors more often.

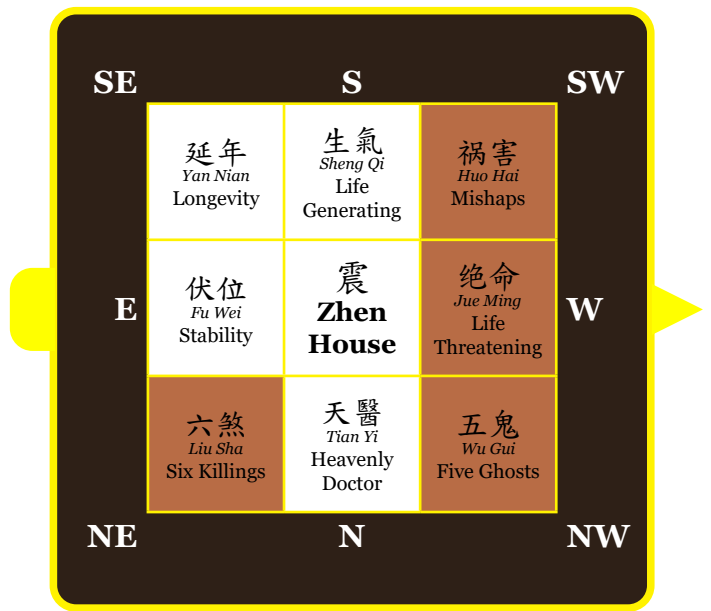

Eight Mansions Feng Shui is a Feng Shui application for the long-term. Your house will still be subjected to Annual Feng Shui influences and afflictions caused by the annual Flying Stars and Auxiliary Stars but this is only a short-term effect. By adhering to the Eight Mansions Feng Shui arrangement, your home will benefit from the stronger and more lasting positive influence of the environment. This will help to overcome short-term negative effects.

It is actually impossible and not logical to just use the four sectors in your home. There are always ways to overcome the negative effect of the inauspicious sectors. To find out how, stay tuned to future issues of this magazine.

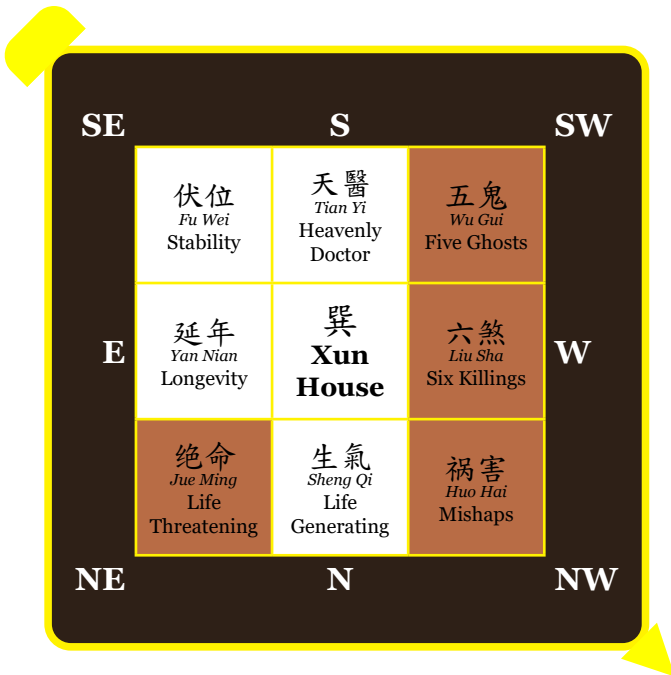

Below are the 8 types of House Gua with auspicious and inauspicious sectors.

Feng Shui - Water Activation

In the study of Bazi, a person's luck is governed by his or her luck cycle. Luck is part of the time and space of that person. There is also another type of luck that is determined by the nature of things. This is the luck or energy from the environment. It is called Feng Shui. Feng Shui can be safely classified into two types whereby one is a more permanent Feng Shui arrangement and another is governed by the time factor which is affected by the Annual Qi. The influence of the Annual Qi is short-term, lasting for a month or a year.

When we talk about Feng Shui activation, it is actually about trying to stimulate the positive

Qi arising from the influence of Annual Qi. Usually this requires activating an auspicious sector given an auspicious date and time. Most of the time, water is used for Feng Shui activation because Qi can be retained in water. Therefore the water should be deep enough and the mouth of the container should be wide enough to receive and contain the Qi as shown in Figure B.

Both Figure A and B show Feng Shui activation by water. What is the difference between these two Feng Shui activations?

If you activate using the method shown in Figure A, which is a miniature water fountain, you are actually stimulating the Qi in the sector by movement. The movement involves the act of placing an object. The Qi will not be collected if there is no bright hall around the miniature water fountain.

On the other hand, by activating using the method shown in Figure B, you are not only stimulating the Qi in the sector by movement but also retaining the Qi with the big container of water. You will get better and faster results using the activation method in Figure B.

MEILU VILLA

It was raining when I stepped out from the bus. The mist added a mysterious aura to the surroundings. This was how I felt when I arrived at the MeiLu Villa on Mt Lushan.

Background of MeiLu Villa

MeiLu Villa was constructed in 1903 by Britain's Lord Lannoze. It was transferred to the Mrs. Bali in 1922. Mrs Bali later gifted the Villa to her friend Soong Mei Ling, who was Kuomintang (KMT) leader Chiang Kai Shek's wife. Chiang Kai Shek named the Villa after his wife and spent many summers there. Many important decisions that affected China during that era took place in the Villa. Interestingly, MeiLu Villa was the place where the two great rivals, Chiang Kai Shek and Mao Zedong, met. It was known that Mao Zedong used Qi Men Dun Jia to win China. Mao Zedong took over the Villa after Chiang Kai Shek was defeated and made further changes to MeiLu Villa which had some significance Feng Shui-wise.

Mao Zedong changed the orientation and main door of MeiLu Villa after claiming it. He stayed in MeiLu Villa twice, in 1959 and in 1961, while the Communist Party of China Conferences were held in Mt Lushan. During this time, many important events that influenced and determined China's fate were conceived in this Villa.

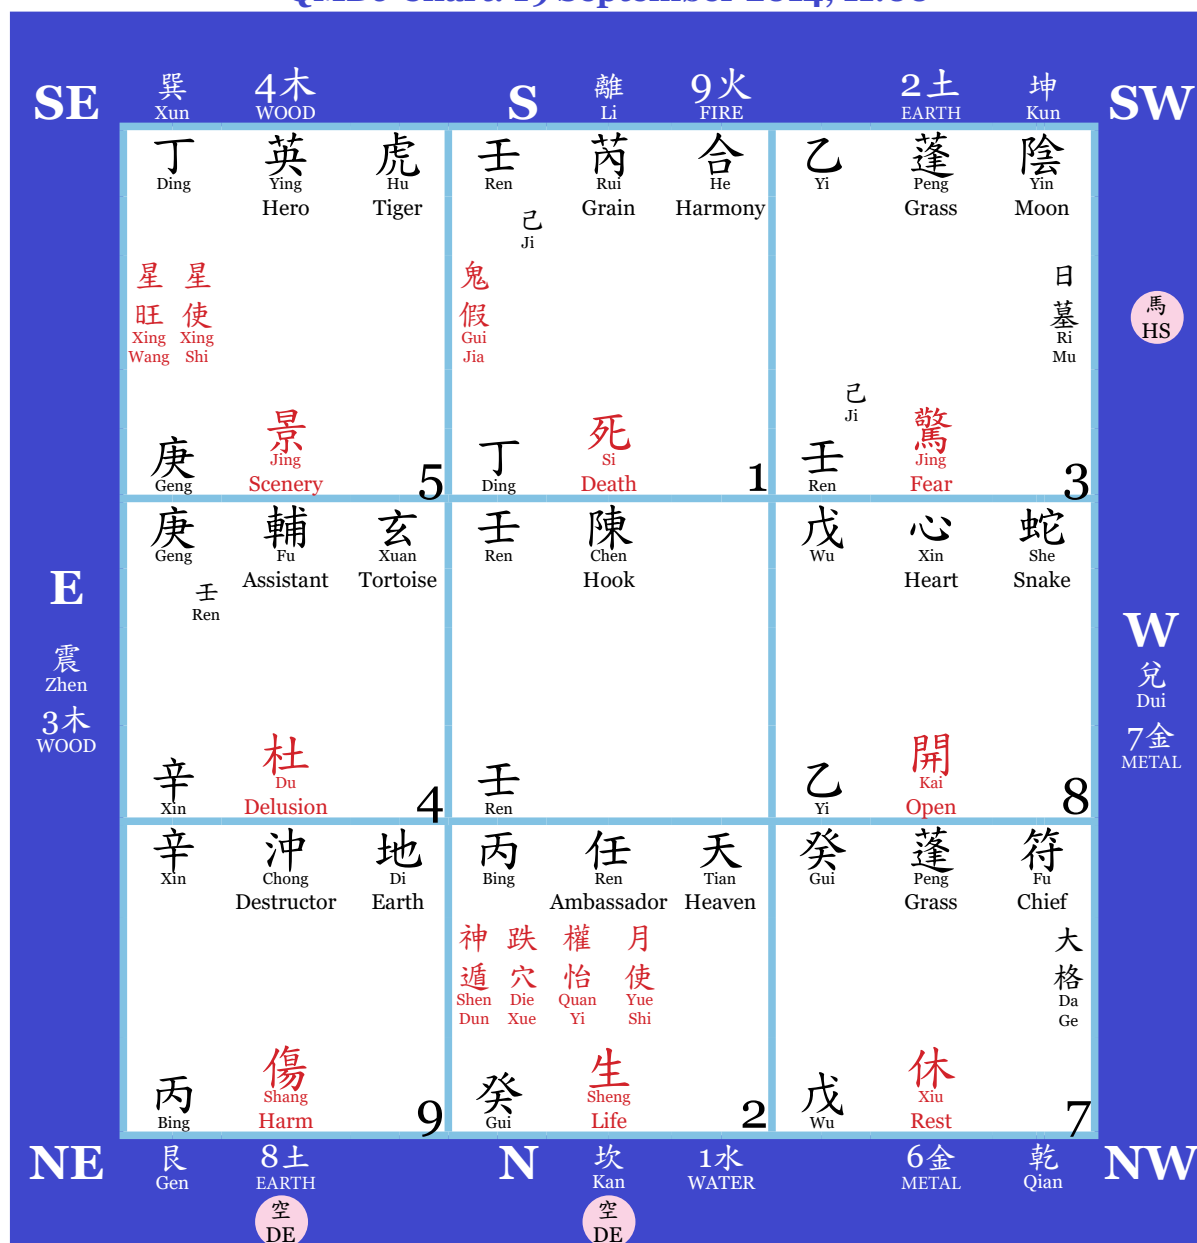

The Villa was then closed to the public from the 1930s to the late 1970s. It was only reopened to the public in the 1980s.

Qi Men Reading

As you already know, I arrived to poor weather – it was drizzling, cold and windy, and mist had formed over Mt Lushan and the Villa. As nothing can be seen clearly, a Qi Men chart was pulled out to do a remote

Using QMDJ to determine the Landform of MeiLu Villa viewing of the place instead. It gave an amazingly accurate result. Although the Villa was covered with mountain mist, we were able to see that the problem area, a mountain gap, appears in the NE of this Villa externally as indicated in the Qi Men

Later on, I pull out Google Map to compare it with the Qi Men chart.

生門 Life Door usually indicates the source

Qi. The incoming dragon, Qi mouth or water mouth comes from the North. Although this is not clearly seen on the rainy day, the North is actually on high ground where water travels downward. This was noted as we walked across to the Zhou Enlai Residence. Google Map further confirmed our study.

The Zhou Enlai Residence sits on a little hill across the West of MeiLu Villa. The immediate land surrounding MeiLu Villa looks like an armchair. This clearly conformed to the Qi Men reading of 六合 Six Harmony in the South Palace. There are two mountains embracing right in the middle of this villa. While we were walking to the Zhou Enlai Residence, we saw the Y-junction road, which was another sign of 六合 Six Harmony. The presence of two embraces indicates that the water is leaving toward the South.

I was quite dumb-founded with this experience, seeing the Feng Shui of MeiLu Villa only with the Qi Men Chart. Until now I'm still amazed at the accuracy of the Qi Men reading.

FINDING THE 十神 TEN GODS (THE INFLUENCE ELEMENT)

There are altogether 10 types of Day Masters arising from the two different polarities (Yin and Yang) of the Five Elements. The Ten Gods are derived from the interaction of the Five Elements with the Day Master. Each of these Five Elements can support, destroy, control, or exhaust one another.

In this issue's Bazi 101, we want to explore the Influence element. The Influence element is derived from the element that controls the Day Master in the controlling cycle of the Five Elements. For example, the Water element controls the Fire Day Master. Hence, Water represents Influence to Fire Day Master people. The Influence element is further divided into Yin and Yang polarities, resulting in the Direct Officer and Seven Killings. Seven Killings has the same polarity as the Day Master. Direct Officer is of the opposite polarity to the Day Master. Table 1 shows the Day Masters' Influence elements.

Table 1: The Influence Elements of the 10 Day Masters.

FACE READING

TOP 5 THINGS TO TAKE NOTE OF WHEN APPROACHING YOUR CUSTOMER

In the study of Face Reading, the face can tell a lot about a person. A little knowledge about Face Reading can give salespeople an edge over their competitors and help them stand out to potential clients.

In our previous face reading article, we talked about wealth, which is represented by the nose. The features in the face are really simple to recognize. By identifying the strengths and weaknesses characterized by the face, you can identify the right way to persuade a customer to make a purchase.

In this issue's Face Reading, we look into the 5 facial features that, in combination with the nose, indicate a person's spending habits.

No 1: A Wide and Tall Forehead

A wide and tall forehead indicates a thinker personality. This person is detail-oriented and likes to look at numbers as well as make comparisons.

If the person's face comes with a fleshy nose then this person has spending power but is careful with money. Give this type of person a lot of details and show the strength of your products over others. Give them something to think over. They value good service and love to be updated from time to time.

If this person has a pointy and sharp nose, it indicates a petty and calculative personality. Besides offering your services, give them a lot of free gifts to win their business.

No 2: Eyebrows

The width between two eyebrows indicates a person good judgement and generosity. Ideally it should be the width of the index and middle fingers together.

If the person's face comes with a fleshy nose, it indicates a very generous person with good spending power. Usually it is easy to persuade them to buy if they already have the intention to do so. They are not fussy buyers.

When the width of the two eyebrows is narrow, it is easy to manipulate them into buying your products and services because they are shortsighted. But beware! If the products/services do not meet their expectations, they will think that you have cheated them. They will not hesitate to throw tantrums and cause a fuss. It is difficult to clarify and explain to these people

No 3: Triangular drooping eyelids

Drooping eyelids will usually cause the eye to form a triangular shape. This type of person is easily jealous of others. If this person comes with a pointy and sharp nose, it indicates further pettiness.

Unless the person comes with deep pockets, you are better off without this type of customer.

No 4: Lips

Voluptuous lips indicate a person who likes to indulge in luxuries and the best of what life has to offer. If this person comes with a pointy and sharp nose, he will likely use whatever means possible to get what he desires. When the person comes with a fleshy nose, he is probably a good spender.

Branded and luxury goods appeal to them. Sell them the image of wealth, power and the good life.

No 5: Chin

A fleshy chin or double chin indicates good support in older life. This type of people will unconsciously accumulate assets and valuables. They are the rational type and will not spend on flashy stuff.

With a straight and fleshy nose, this indicates a person who has strong buying power. They like to be in their comfort zone so they like to deal with the same person. This type of people make very good and loyal customers.

There are many more facial features that can help you understand your customers better. If this powerful knowledge is applied in the right manner, you will have more confidence to negotiate with and win over your potential clients in this competitive market.

法奇門 FA QI MEN

SPECIAL NINE STARS LAMP RITUAL TO FULFILL YOUR WISHES

We often hear of lighting the Seven Stars Lamp to pray for or to manifest good health and prosperity. The Seven Stars Lamp is actually a mirror image of the Big Dipper. This ritual grounds the energy from the universe onto the earth to the person who is making the wishes. This is called the connection of Heaven Luck, Man Luck and Earth luck.

In the old days, a Taoist priest was often paid to perform this ritual with a special chanting of mantras on behalf of the petitioner. Sometimes the guardian of Chinese temples would help the petitioner to light the lamp in exchange for a donation to the temple. The Taoist priest and the guardian usually use the Qi Men chart available from the Chinese Almanac (通勝 Tong Shu) to perform the lighting of the Seven Stars Lamp. As the years passed, this practice became popular during Chinese festive seasons, but it may or may not follow the Qi Men chart path as the knowledge is passed down by word of mouth from one generation to another.

While the lamp lighting ritual is meant to connect us to the energy from the Universe, the Qi Men chart provides the right timing and direction so that the right energy is connected to the wishes.

The Big Dipper actually consists of nine stars with two stars hidden from the naked eye.

You can only see the two hidden stars with a powerful telescope. Similar to the Seven Stars Lamp ritual, the Nine Stars Lamp ritual is meant to harness the energy of the Big Dipper to fulfill a person's wish.

Figure 1 shows how you should position the lamps. Oil lamps should be used so that the lamps can continuously burn for forty nine days. For safety reasons, especially in the modern environment where you may face space and time constraints, you can follow this simplified method. You can replace the oil lamps with candles and let them burn off on their own to signify the end of the ritual. This would take about 3 to 4 hours.

Step by step guide to the Nine Stars Lamp Ritual

1. Select the Hour based on the Qi Men chart with an auspicious direction.
2. At the selected hour, light the candles in the order shown in Figure 1.
3. After lighting the candles, stand with your back to the auspicious direction and make your wish.
4. Ensure that all the candles burn off naturally on their own. If the candle is blown out by the wind or accidentally goes out, these indicate that the ritual is not successful. Do not worry, you just need to select another day and time to do the Nine Stars Lamp ritual again.
5. The Nine Stars Lamp ritual is best done outdoors where there is nothing coming between the energy from the Universe and you.

We hope that this Nine Stars Lamp ritual will help you to manifest your wishes faster.

Question

Yvonne Siew

How is my income luck this year? Where will the main source of wealth come from? Will I be able to find a good investment property in 2016?

Date of Birth: 12 December 1975

Time of Birth: 23:00

Gender: Male

Just Ask

Your main source of wealth will come from doing some side business and through connections with friends and family. If you are running your own business, you will find that there is an increase in profit in 2016. If you are an employee, income will be stable without much change. There is no dumb money luck this year. Investing in shares may lead to a loss of wealth.

Yes, investment in property is more suitable for you and you will find a good investment property in 2016 especially after June 2016.

Advice: Look for a long term investment in property. Do not speculate on the stock market in 2016.

Question

Angie

Hi! I have a Feng Shui question. I am moving into my new apartment with my main entrance at Sector 3 of the unit. The washer and dryer is on the left hand side after entering my home and also included in annual Flying Star 3 sector.

Star 3 is Wood. I need to weaken Wood with Metal and Fire. Washer involves Water. Washer and dryer are made of Metal but washer involves Water and the dryer makes a loud noise when done so..... Will all these activate Star 3's energy??? Washer and dryer are located in a small area with a door though. So I can close it and it will be out of sight but it's all next to my entry way, all in Star 3. Please help!

When I enter my home, after one or two steps, it's the door to the washer and dryer on my left. Right when I enter, to my right hand side is my coat closet. My bathroom is also in Star 8, does that mean my wealth is being flushed away? I am concerned. I can light scented candles in my bathroom in attempt to bring more fire energy to Star 8.

Just Ask

Angie, it is best that you focus on the good sectors since you have already moved into your new home. Activate the Southeast or East sector of your home and you will find that everything will go smoothly. Refer to our Good Date Planner to do the Feng Shui activation. Do not attempt to cure the bad sectors as you may accidental magnify Feng Shui affliction problems.

Hot! Hot! Oh so hot!

Expect a drier and hotter season in the month of June. Chances are, people are likely to be short tempered due to the negative influence of the inauspicious stars. Arguments and fights can easily arise over small issues. With these inauspicious stars, it is best to take some time off for rest and relaxation away from the stress of the busy city life.

This month, your friends are likely to be your noblemen. They are the ones most likely to get you out from sticky or dangerous situations. The Three Stages star also favours networking activity. It bodes well for people in the sales line.

While there are chances for good connections, the presence of harbinger stars such as the White Tiger star indicates petty people and backstabbing. Other negative stars indicate harm from accidents and injuries. Be extra careful while travelling and driving.

Wealth and fortune favours those who have strong networks, and those who are resourceful, not necessarily the rich and powerful.

If the month's Qi is unfavourable to you, especially those who have Rat, Horse or Ox at the Hour and Year Pillar, you are likely to be dragged into arguments and disputes that can turn into nasty fights. This month, it is best to be selective about the people you mix with.

This month's energy does not favour those who have the following zodiacs: Rat, Horse or Ox.

This month's energy favours those who have the following zodiacs: Goat, Tiger and Dog.

Wood Day Masters (甲 Jia Yang Wood and 乙 Yi Yin Wood) you will tire easily and feel lethargic. You will be easily stressed-out by your environment, and as a result you will be short-tempered. If possible, take a short holiday.

Fire Day Masters (丙 Bing Yang Fire and 丁 Ding Yin Fire), will have an enjoyable month with much partying and socialising. However, be alert to your surroundings, especially at night. The negative influence indicates robberies and injuries.

Earth Day Masters (戊 Wu Yang Earth and 己 Ji Yin Earth), you will have plenty of help. Be grateful. You will tend to overthink. Learn something new to divert some of your energy.

Metal Day Masters (庚 Geng Yang Metal and 辛 Xin Yin Metal), your rash actions may put you in danger. So be wise and do not let your anger get the better of you.

Water Day Masters (壬 Ren Yang Water and 癸 Gui Yin Water), collaboration can bring you wealth.

Tiger

A busy month is in store for you. Your friends will look to you for support and help. Give a hand where you can. Your goodwill towards others will be returned to you in kind.

Rabbit

You can look forward to a stable month. You will tire easily and feel lethargic. Seek medical treatment and advice from the doctor if you do not feel well. Peach Blossom luck is shining on you. This month's energy fosters strong passionate relationships. While you enjoy the romance do not let your heart rule over your mind.

Dragon

You will have a lot of things on your mind. Everything looks positive and your sunnier disposition makes you feel that all your ideas will work. You need a little bit of rationality to temper your overconfidence. But all will be well.

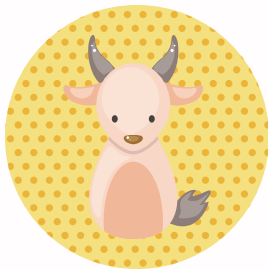

Snake

Snake people can look forward to a fortunate month again. You are surrounded by ample support and offers of wise advice from a variety of sources. However, this is not the best month to make big changes. Better to wait for a better time to seek a new job, migrate or make an important decision.

Horse

Be forewarned! Do not think that you can get away with even a tiny bit of naughty stuff. Your negative actions are crystal clear to others. You will find out that your secret is not a secret after all, and you will be punished accordingly.

Goat

Romance luck shines brightly on you or at least you will find that you are popular with the opposite sex. Your kindness and consideration will attract people to you. Go out with friends and meet more people.

Monkey

Monkey people may feel a little frustrated career-wise. Whatever you work on seems to meet with obstacles and setbacks. Be alert! You need to have a clear and sharp mind to keep you going. A little patience will help you to get through this tough month.

Rooster

Be mindful of the usage of electrical things in your home. Your forgetfulness may lead to fire hazards. Other than this, the Horse month is generally a good month for Rooster people. There is plenty of good news waiting for you. You may win the lottery too.

Dog

The Horse month's energy continues to be beneficial for networking and public relations work. If you are a sales person, you will have a lot of sales leads from references and introductions. Work harder and work smarter to achieve your sales target. It is very near your reach.

Pig

After a busy month of work, now is the time to pamper yourself. There is an abundance of wealth luck shining on you. Go for an exotic holiday or a short luxurious trip to rejuvenate yourself. Nothing is more important than loving yourself.

Rat

Overall, the Rat sign is doing well financially in the Horse month. However, you are down and under the weather this month. Do not take your health for granted even though it is just a minor ailment. You are also prone to minor injuries and accidents. Be mindful of your surroundings and while handling sharp objects.

Ox

You are overly sensitive this month. Your mind wanders aimlessly too. You tend to be easily hurt by others' actions. Do not mind what others are up to. Take this time to enrich yourself with more knowledge and build your confidence. You will find that this is not a bad month after all.
