Message from the Editor

Dear Readers,

Welcome to the September 2017 issue of Bazichic magazine. Jo and I were discussing the contents of this issue over dinner, when Jo mentioned that September may be a particular difficult month, with its four Roosters creating lots and lots of self-punishment. It made me think of a relative who is about to do something very rash. I hope to be able to stop him from doing something that he will regret. May you all also stay calm and help your loved ones to stay calm this difficult month. Take care.

What you can Gather from a Qi Men Dun Jia Destiny Reading

Some people believe that they have chosen their lives, the people in their lives as well as the situations that come up throughout the course of their lives. This is because, at a soul level, they wanted to learn, to evolve, and to grow. A Destiny Reading can tell why you have chosen this life.

A Destiny Reading is your personal story, an opportunity to provide you with amazing insight and a greater understanding of your own growth and the choices and challenges that you may face.

Destiny Reading is a wonderful tool for self-development! There are many ancient systems calculating and analysing your destiny based on your date and time of birth such as Bazi, Tzi Wei, Liu Ren and Qi Men Dun Jia (QMDJ). QMDJ is widely known as a strategic tool used for war. However, it is also one of the oldest systems in Ancient China used for Destiny Reading. While it is not as well known for destiny analysis, it still provides a wide range of information.

There are two parts to a QMDJ Destiny Reading. The first part is about understanding the true purpose of your life, and what you can choose to accomplish in this life. The second part addresses the upcoming year, reviewing new opportunities and new challenges. In this issue, we show you an example of what you can gather from the first part of a QMDJ Destiny Reading - capacity, challenges and purpose of life.

The QMDJ chart is divided into 9 grids with 8 directions according to the compass. The ninth grid, the centre is not used. It is easy to analyse the QMDJ chart for destiny reading because the 8 grids represent Palaces. Each Palace represents an aspect of your life.

Destiny Palace

You may have been wondering...

“What is the meaning of life?”

“Why am I here?”

“What is my life all about?”

“What is the purpose of my existence?”

We all hope that our lives have meaning. Most of us are still searching for the purpose of life. In the QMDJ Destiny Chart, you can find some of your answers in the Destiny Palace. The Destiny Palace shows you what you can choose to accomplish in this life at the conscious level. You will always take active action to achieve this purpose. Every person has a different purpose in life. This is why what seems to be the right path for this person may not sit well with another person's beliefs and practices. And not everyone's life purpose is to do good.

Inner-Self Palace

There are people still disenchanted about life even though they have achieved what they wanted. This is because your subconscious mind may have different wants and needs. The Inner-Self Palace represents your subconscious mind. Some believe that the subconscious mind holds the key to your real purpose in life. In a QMDJ Destiny Reading, it is considered ideal to have the Inner-Self Palace and Destiny Palace supporting each other. At the basic level, everyone accepts the idea that the purpose of life is to find happiness. When the Inner-Self Palace and Destiny Palace is supporting each other, happiness is attained. When the Inner-Self Palace is in conflict with the Destiny Palace, you will discover that your internal desires and external achievements are going in opposite directions. You will not feel contented and fulfilled.

Soul Palace

Besides the Destiny Palace and the Inner-Self Palace, there is the Soul Palace. This Palace is also known the Spiritual Palace. It is your “Spiritual Calling”. This Palace can give you some pointers as to why you have chosen this life. Religious people believe that spiritual calling is the grand purpose God has for them. The modern concept of spiritual calling is to “know the Truth”, that is, being enlightened. It is not necessarily related to a certain religion. When this Palace supports the Destiny Palace and Inner-Self Palace, you will learn, evolve, and grow at a soul level. If this Palace is in conflict with the other two Palaces, then the reason you have chosen this life is not to become enlightened spiritually but because that you are here to settle a debt or to fulfil a promise before you can move on.

It is necessary to understand spiritual calling from the point of view of Taoism. This is because the QMDJ system has long been used in Taoist practice to cultivate life and attain the Tao or the Way as stated in Lao-tzu's classic text the Tao Te Ching:

“The Tao is called the Great Mother
Empty yet inexhaustible
It gives birth to infinite worlds.

It is always present within you.
You can use it anyway you want.”

It simply means that the Tao is always present with us, and we can use it anyway we want. These three Palaces - Destiny Palace, Inner-Self Palace and Soul Palace, fit into the Taoist soul structure of San Hun Qi Po (三魂七魄). These three Palaces represent San Hun which means three souls. When these three Palaces are in conflict with each other in a person's QMDJ Destiny Chart, the person is absent-minded, dull and lacks will and focus. This is why the Chinese like to remark, ‘Have you lost your San Hun Qi Po?’ when they see an absent-minded person.

In Comparison to Bazi...

The Bazi system does not address an individual's purpose in life in such detail. It is more common to use the Bazi system to do destiny readings. A lot of Bazi analysis is influenced by the practice and views of traditional Chinese society. Chinese society places more emphasis on family and community than the individual. At the most basic level, the main purpose of life is to continue the family name. In Bazi Destiny Reading this is translated as the Hour Pillar. This Pillar represents the Children Palace. This is because children, especially sons, are a family's legacy. While in general most destiny reading tools give readings that point to the same general direction, each destiny reading tool may provide some extra insights not provided by other tools.

A short destiny reading...

Below is Calvin's QMDJ Destiny Chart. His Destiny Palace is located at the East Grid. This Palace indicates that friends, family and relationship matters are very important to him. You can say that in this earthly life, his purpose is to build a perfect family. He will be impatient to achieve this. He may not find happiness in what he has accomplished.

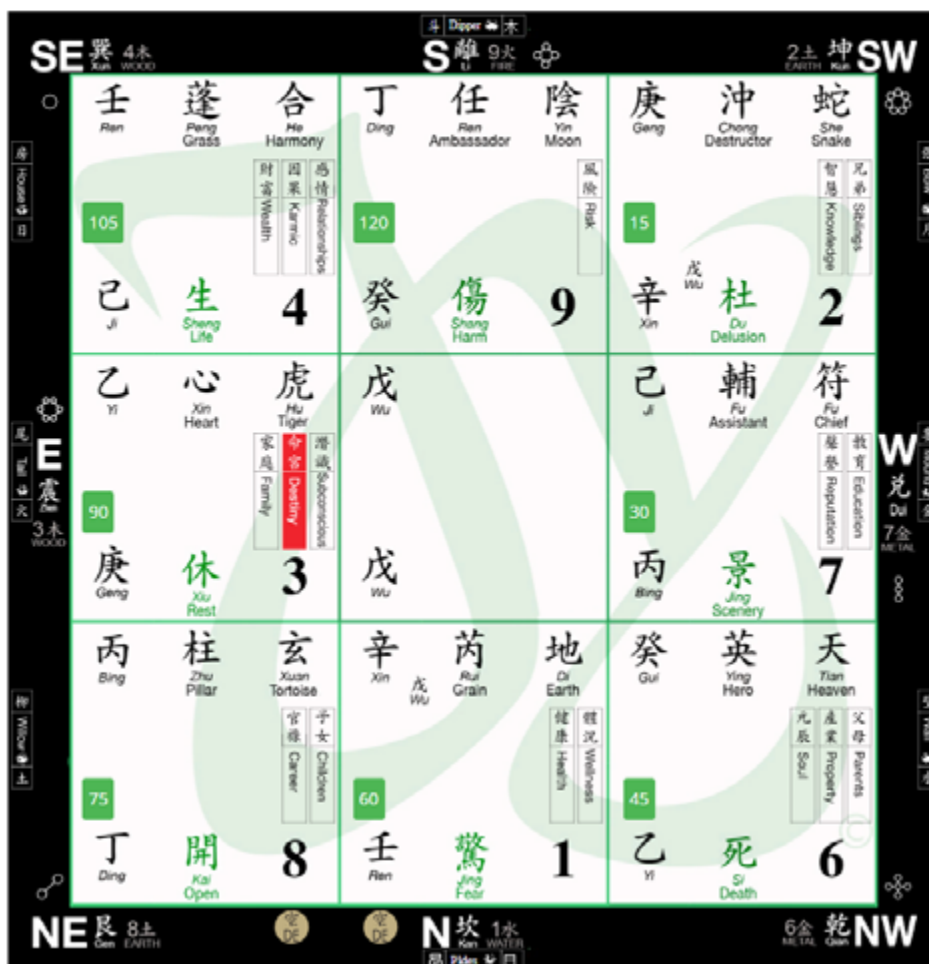

His Inner-Self Palace and Soul Palace happen to be the same at the Northwest Grid. These Palaces are in conflict with his Destiny Palace. At the soul and subconscious level, he prefers solitude. He hopes to attain some fame and become a wise hero amongst the people he knows, especially in the eyes of his parents. His deepest wish can be summed up in the image: "A wise man living in the mountain, well-known but can't be found."

The Wellness Palace at the North Grid is the bridge between his Destiny Palace, Inner-Palace and Soul Palace. The Wellness Palace represents his body, mind and spirit. By attaining a healthy body, sharp mind and positive spirit, he can achieve happiness and fulfil his subconscious and soul purpose.

There is more information that can be extracted from a QMDJ Destiny reading. However, if you are able to have a deep understanding of yourself through the Destiny, Inner-Self and Soul Palace, you are already on the path to success. Bazichic is organizing a QMDJ Group Destiny Reading at the Facebook group in the month of October 2017. You can join the group destiny reading for a small fee. True Love – Age doesn't matter

Is it possible to fall in love at first sight? The answer is “Yes!” Even scientists say so. Scientists describe love at first sight as a quick rush of the chemical dopamine being release by the brain.

In Chinese Metaphysics, love happens when two people have each other in their Bazi Chart. We also call this the “soulmate”. The popular idea of a soulmate is that there’s one magical person for you, whom you’ll fall in love with instantly. He or she is compatible with you, supportive of your every endeavour and will never disagree with you. But this is just not realistic.

In Chinese Metaphysics, soulmates are two people who, due to strong connection and affinity, have been pulled together to share the same path. To embark on a journey together, is a decision made by both parties. A person can have more than one soulmate. People often think that their soulmate is their lover. This is not necessarily true. A soulmate can be your enemy or frenemy. When a person keeps crossing your path, and he or she directly or indirectly challenges you so that you can experience monumental progress and development mentally and spiritually, then this person may be your soulmate.

Unconventional love story...

Let’s take a look at an unconventional love story. A couple who defied the norms to be together. She was his drama teacher and a married mother of three. He was only 15 when he vowed to marry her one day. Their age gap is not just merely a few years. She was 24 years his senior. A lot of people will dismiss the idea of a boy of 15 falling love with his teacher, calling it puppy love, an infatuation that teenagers often feel. But he married her in 2006 at the age of 29, when she divorced her husband.

Below are the couple’s Bazi Charts.

He was born on 21 December 1977 at the estimated time of 10:40.

His Day Master Ren (Yang Water) appears in her Bazi Chart just next to her Day Master Jia (Yang Wood).

In his Bazi Chart, her whole Pillar is also located next to his Day Master. She will always look young no matter what her age because not only her Day Master but her Day Pillar is camouflaged as the Yin element. The Yin element is always associated with gentleness, youth, softness and femininity. He will always look at her through rose-tinted glasses. This also indicates that he is more attracted to her. Both Bazi Charts have each other’s Day Master at the Hour Pillar so they will share the same path until their old age. They are very supportive of each other. He has

Let's take a look at another famous couple.

Her Day Master Bing (Yang Fire) appears in his Bazi Chart at the Year Stem which is the Social Palace. This indicates that he sees and likes her as someone to be seen with – to show-off. In her Bazi Chart, there is no sign of his Day Master, Ji (Yin Earth). It may be at the Hour Pillar, but we don't have that information. Both Bazi Charts are strong Fire and Earth Elements. This indicates that they share the same goals and desires. Her Husband Star is located in the right Palace which indicates a good marriage in traditional terms. This means that a woman is marrying into a well-to-do family with good status. Love is not part of the consideration. Their Luck Cycle seems to be weakly holding their marriage together.

They became the face of America, and like celebrities, their marriage is subject to endless analysis and interpretation. The American public expects them to be the perfect couple. The media are scrutinising them from every angle looking for a juicy story.

How to Measure Locations in your Home for Feng Shui Activation Purposes

In this magazine, we have discussed many Feng Shui tips and activations to incorporate at home. This article is especially for those who are new to Feng Shui practices and don't know where to begin. To apply Feng Shui to the home, one must know how to establish the direction and location of one's home.

You must be wondering why so much fuss is being made establishing direction. Surely East is East and West is West and the South are also fixed directions. This may be true, but what we want to establish in Feng Shui is the reference point when measuring your home. Follow the easy steps below.

Establishing Directions in Feng Shui

Step 1: Find the Centre of your Home

For easy measurement and for beginners, we advise that you take the compass measurement from the centre of your home. So, to find the centre of your home, take a look at your house plan.

Some may argue that the centre of a house is disturbed by electromagnetic fields and the compass measurement may not be accurate. For Feng Shui activation purpose and most other Feng Shui tools, it is acceptable for the measurement to differ by 1 to 2 degrees.

Important: For Xuan Gong Da Gua Feng Shui activation, it is important to get an accurate measurement of the direction because the direction of the activation is very specific and to a minute degree. Hence, for this type of Feng Shui activation, it is best that you consult a Feng Shui professional.

Step 2: Take the measurement

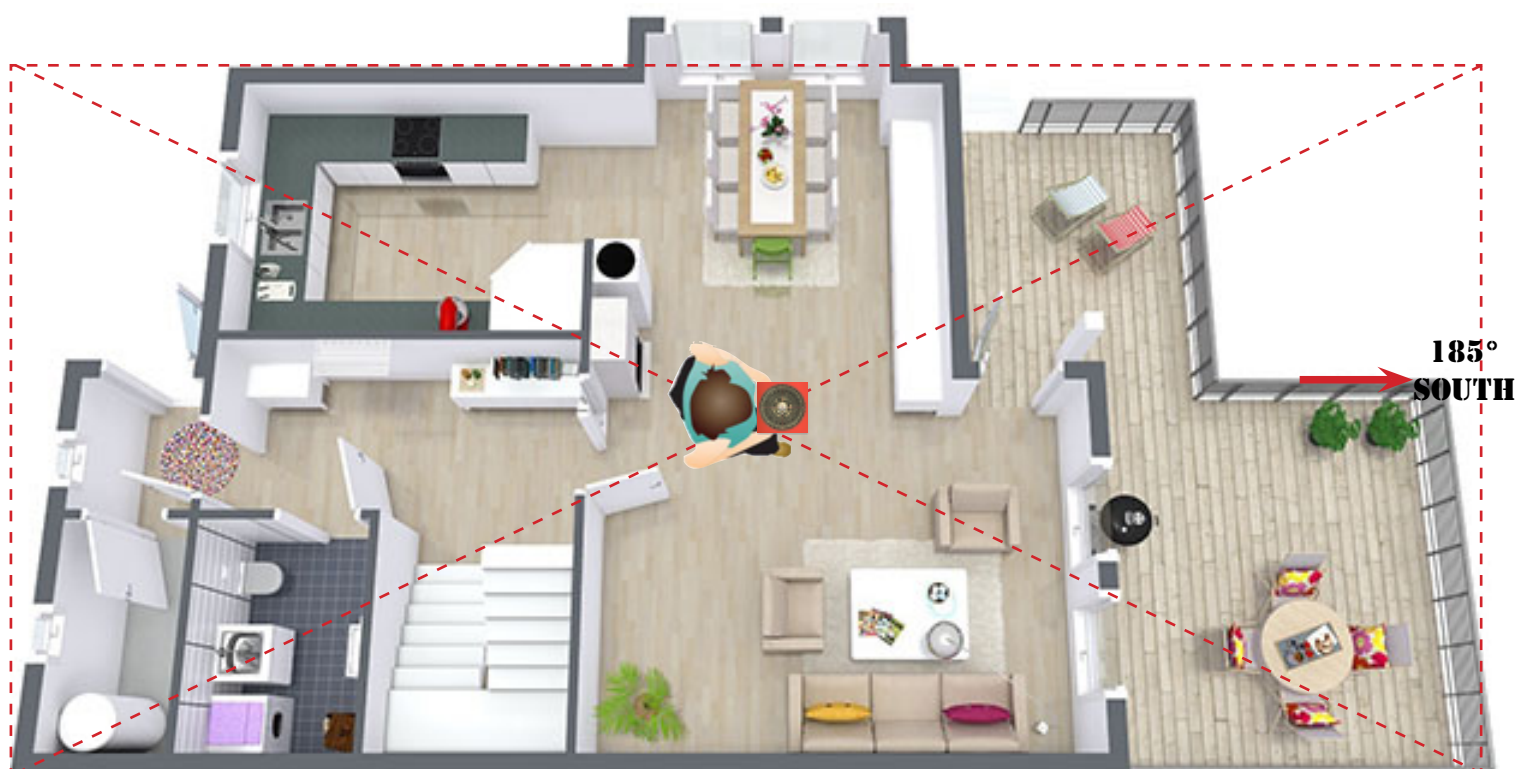

Based on the floor plan, stand in the centre of your home as indicated by the floor plan with a compass. You can face any direction you want to take the measurement. Mark the direction and degree on the floor plan.

We recommend that you face the main door or South direction of your home for easy reference.

Do a quick visual check and see if you have all the right Feng Shui elements there.

Going further, you will take the reading from the main door (inside looking out) and then establish all the directions in a more exact manner on your floor plan.

Step 3: Superimpose the 24-Mountains Compass on your Home

With the directions marked on your floor plan, superimpose the 24-Mountains Compass on your Floor Plan matching the directions on your plan. You can find the 24-Mountains Compass on page 68.

Ta-Da! Now you have all the Feng Shui directions of your home at your fingertips. You are all set to do some Feng Shui activation now.

A Simple Guide To Investing

In this investment guide series, we continue to use Qi Men Dun Jia ('QMDJ') Forecasting for investment purposes. Although QMDJ is a good guide for investing, I still need to stress again that proper understanding, careful study and analysis are still needed for investment success. The information you acquire about your investment will indicate whether you have made the right decision to go ahead with your investment choice. Sometimes your research will call for you to exit the investment but the decision as to when to exit depends on the investor. Anyone who decides to invest should always have an exit plan – the target price for profit or losses that they are willing to accept.

Let's take a look at the QMDJ chart on 22 August 2017 at 10:32 (see page 16), and how this chart can give you some simple investment guidance. For investment related matters, the focus point is the 生門 Life Door. Therefore, the Northwest Palace (Earth Element) is used for this reading. Northwest Palace does not show positive structures and holds a hidden danger. The 蓬 Heavenly Grain Star with 虎 White Tiger Deity resides in the Northwest Palace. This indicates a possible asset related problem in the company.

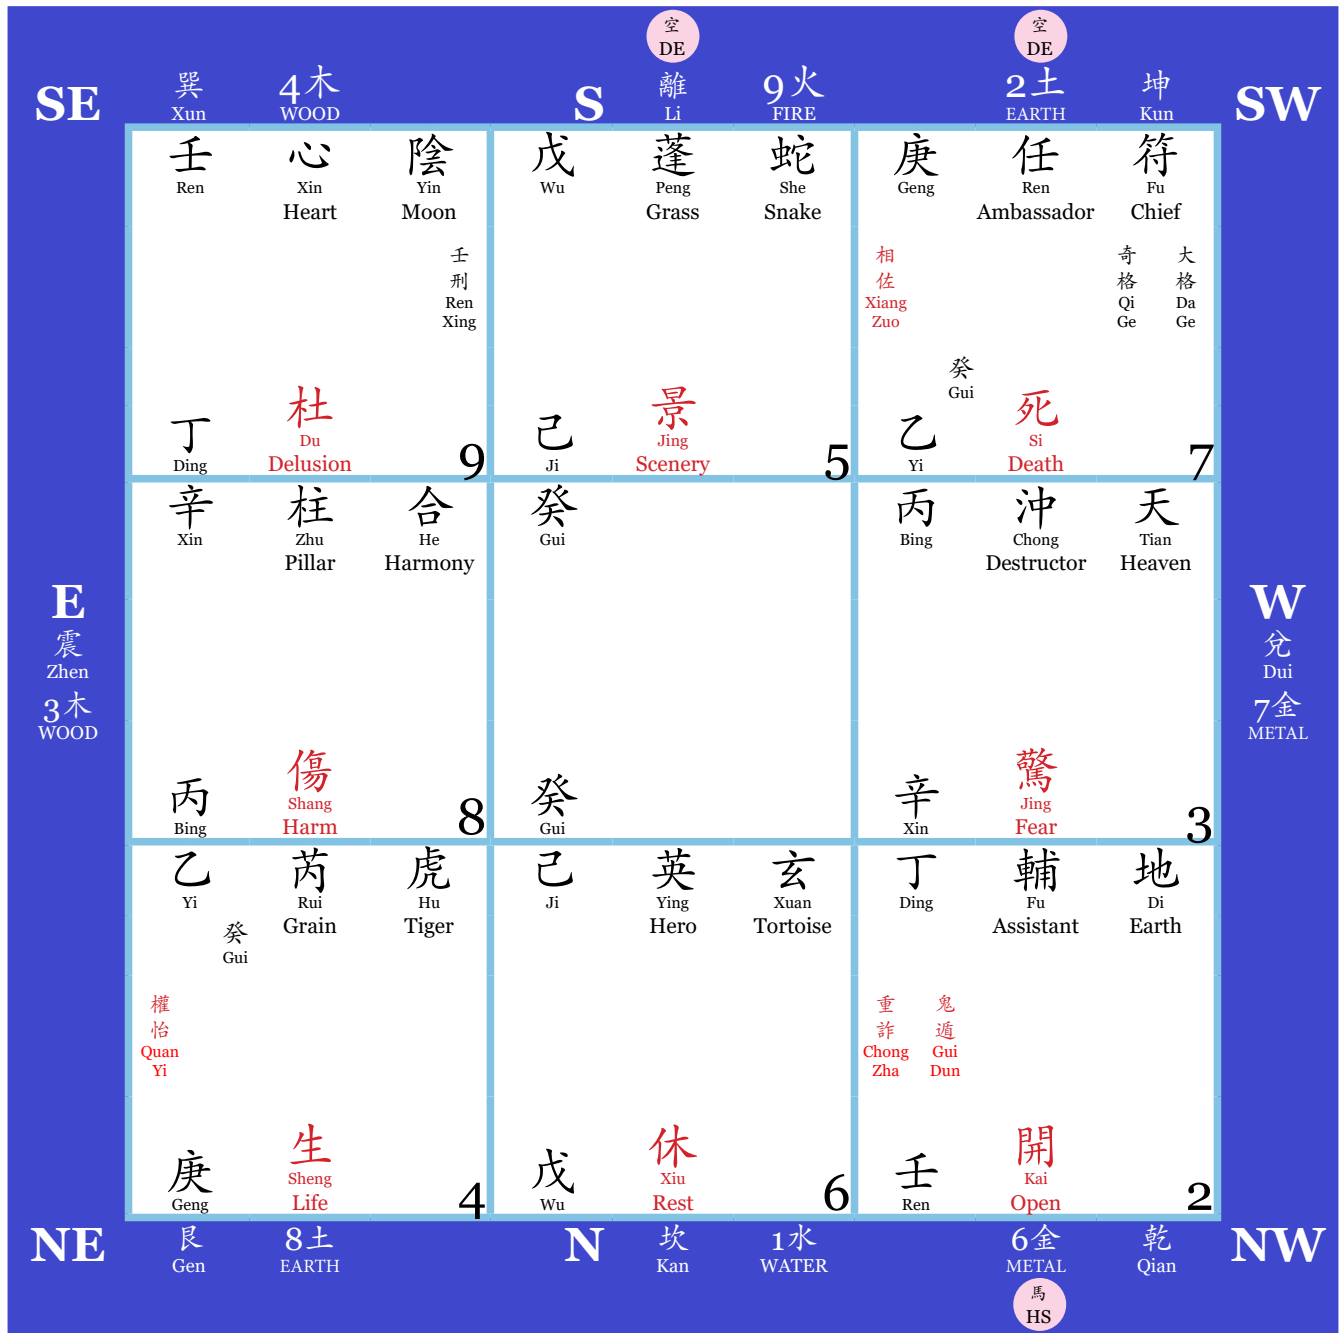

Another important focus point to look at is the Palace that contains the 戊 Wu Earth Heavenly Stem. It falls into South Palace (Fire Element) producing to Northwest Palace (Earth Element). Usually this indicates that the share price is going upward.

Notice that there is a 空 Death & Emptiness sign in the South Palace? This is where the importance of your knowledge and analysis kicks in. Death & Emptiness can represent many things. There are two possibilities. It may mean that the stock price will not go up until the Death & Emptiness sign is filled in. It may also mean that there will be not be any profit to be gained from this stock.

Conclusion: You still need to know the fundamentals of your investment.

QMDJ Forecasting gives a straight forward and simple answer. It is easy to understand and use. You can learn QMDJ Forecasting or consult a QMDJ consultant about your investment. Bazichic is offering a QMDJ Forecasting workshop. If you are interested, please email customer_support@bazichic.com for further information.

Priority of Location vs Direction in Feng Shui Application

With so much Feng Shui information available these days, people often get confused when they try to put what they know to good use. Feng Shui is not a complicated subject but there are many formulas and concepts in its study and application. People become unsure and get distracted when they try to put every single Feng Shui concept into use. There is no right way to approach the subject.

Feng Shui consultants always seem to receive the following questions.

“Which direction best suits me?”

“Which direction is favourable to me?”

“Should I hunt for a property that is facing a direction favourable to me?”

While this is a valid question, it not easy to answer. This is because the landform of the surrounding environment is an important factor to be considered first. Mountains are considered the source of Qi for all property. Water which encompasses natural water features such as streams, rivers, ponds and lakes serves to contain and carry the Qi. These are good features to be seen around a property.

The second factor is determining the positive and negative sectors in the internal layout of the property. These can be derived from the Eight Mansions Feng Shui concept. You can check-out the eight types of House Gua to find out the auspicious and inauspicious sectors in our June 2016 issue.

Finally, a Feng Shui consultant will personalise the Feng Shui of your home to each occupant according to their Life Gua. Life Gua is an integral part of the Eight Mansions Feng Shui concept.

The Life Gua of each person contains information on the auspicious and inauspicious directions for that person. With this information the person can use the direction to further enhance and tap into the Feng Shui of his home or office.

Hence, location is the priority when checking out the Feng Shui of a property.

Is there an exception to the above rule when it comes to application? The external landform is still a priority when considering the Feng Shui of a property. However, if the property is too small, then the individual Life Gua direction is applied to the layout of the apartment instead of the House Gua sectors. This is very useful when you are living in a studio apartment of less than 500 square feet.

As the population in urban centres continue to grow, the trend of building and living in small apartments is becoming more and more popular especially in countries like Hong Kong and Singapore. This concept may not be applicable to Malaysia just yet.

Personalise the Feng Shui of your Home with Auspicious Life Gua Directions - Auspicious Sectors

Your Life Gua is integral to personalising the Feng Shui of your home using the Eight Mansions concept. Each person has four auspicious directions and four inauspicious directions based on their Gua number. Check-out the Life Gua Reference Table on page 70 to determine your Life Gua number. Table 1 below shows your auspicious and inauspicious directions.

Table 1: Life Gua with Auspicious & Inauspicious Directions

For people with the Life Gua number 5 , follow the Life Gua number 2 if you are male and follow the Life Gua number 8 if you are female.

Below are the four auspicious sectors from the Eight Mansions concept. These sectors bring different kinds of good influence to the occupants of a home.

1. Life Generating (生氣 Sheng Qi)

The energy from this sector attracts prosperity, vitality, respectability and reputation. It is considered the wealth generating sector. You can personalize this sector, by facing your personal Heavenly Doctor or Longevity directions while using this sector.

2. Heavenly Doctor (天醫 Tian Yi)

This sector fosters good health. Use of this sector will promote patience, an agreeable nature, gratitude, security and confidence. This sector will also attract help from Noble people into your life. While utilising this sector, you can enhance the effects further by facing your personal Sheng Qi direction.

3. Longevity (延年 Yan Nian)

This sector enhances the quality of relationships in the family and in your professional life, promotes longevity and self-sufficiency. The energy in this sector nurtures love and marital bliss. This is also a good sector for adolescents going through growing pains. To maximize the benefit of the Yan Nian sector, face the direction of your personal Heavenly Doctor.

4. Stability (伏位 Fu Wei)

This sector fosters overall harmony, peace and stability. This energy brings about peace. Sitting or doing activities while facing your personal Heavenly Doctor direction will further ensure that all is smooth sailing in all your endeavours.

Personalise the Feng Shui of your Home with Auspicious Life Gua Directions - Inauspicious Sectors

In the Eight Mansions Feng Shui concept, there are four inauspicious sectors in each house. Take note of these four inauspicious sectors that bring different negative influences to the occupants of a home. You can neutralize the negative effect using your personal Life Gua auspicious directions.

Although it is always better to focus on the auspicious sectors, with advance level Feng Shui application, these four sectors can bring unexpected great success and rewards provided the external landform is supportive of the property. Naturally, Feng Shui consultants do not like to mitigate or neutralize negative influences unless there is no other choice. The high risk, high reward concept also applies in Feng Shui.

1. Mishaps (禍害 Huo Hai)

The energy of this sector is considered the least harmful of the four inauspicious sectors, but has been known to lead to all kinds of intermittent difficulties and frustrations. Persons under this influence may tire easily and feel insecure.

With positive external landform, it can bring breakthroughs to the occupants. This sector's negative effect can be neutralized by the person's Fu Wei direction.

2. Five Ghosts (五鬼 Wu Gui)

The energy at this sector generates influence that can lead to fire, loss of income, and burglary. It also causes quarrels and misunderstandings at home and at work.

With positive external landform, occupants can amass massive wealth. This sector's negative effect can be neutralized by the person's Sheng Qi direction.

3. Six Killings (六煞 Liu Sha)

This sector represents scandals, missed opportunities, legal entanglements and illness. Persons under this influence may experience fitful sleep, lack of focus, lethargy in their everyday being and may even become alcoholics.

With positive external landform, occupants in the food and beverages industry will see success. This sector's negative effect can be neutralized by the person's Yan Nian direction.

4. Life Threatening (絕命 Jue Ming)

This is the most harmful and dangerous sector. This energy can lead to a poor financial position and an unproductive career. Persons under this influence may experience difficulties in every endeavour and it can lead to depression, mental illness, accidents and suicidal feelings.

With positive external landform, occupants enjoy fame and success by making changes and establishing a unique self. This sector is good for transformation. This sector's negative effect can be neutralized by the person's Tian Yi direction.

When you neutralise a negative sector, there is no positive or negative influence in that sector. Hence everything from then on will depend on your own individual luck and hard work.

Beijing Trip - The Temple of Heaven (天壇)

The day was very clear. Yet I didn't manage to see the landform surrounding the place of worship. All I could see was mountains and seas of people queuing for tickets near the entrance. The large number of people was pretty scary. We almost wanted to abandon the trip. Luckily the queue for tickets moved pretty fast. After we grabbed our tickets, we quickly headed in to avoid the new wave of tourists getting down from the tour buses.

Usually when visiting a historical building, I always like to check out the landform. But today was not my day. With so many people blocking the view, I was a little impatient to get this tour done and head on to the next destination.

Surprisingly, we did not see that many people once we entered. It was very spacious once we stepped inside the temple grounds. We could walk freely and enjoy the scenery. It was beautiful to walk along the avenues, being surrounded by trees and the chirping of birds singing in the trees. “Where did all the people go?” I wondered. It was only when I began my research for this article that I realised that the Temple of Heaven covers an area of 273 hectares. The temple gave me a lively, good and yet peaceful feeling.

When you come to think of it, the Temple of Heaven is not a place to make a home. It was a place for praying and making offerings to Heaven once a year. The Temple of Heaven is considered to be acting as a big Bright Hall. Yang and vibrant Qi flow in and settle here before moving on. Emperors only need to tap into this Qi to ask the Universe for a bountiful harvest for the country once a year. Mountains acting as left and right embraces are not needed to lock in the Qi.

I was eavesdropping on one of the Chinese tour guides, who was telling the story of how the Temple of Heaven came about. In Chinese, the Temple of Heaven is called Tian Tan (天坛). If directly translated into English, it means the Altar of Heaven. When Emperor Yongle moved to Beijing, he wanted to build a place of worship to Heaven and Earth, but he could not determine the best location. One night, while he was travelling, he got lost in the forest. He looked up to the sky for some direction, and he clearly saw the Big Dipper constellation in the beautiful night sky. He immediately decided to build the place of worship there. It is said that seven large stones that represent the Big Dipper were placed at the point where he spotted the constellation. The tour guide continued to say that the Chinese often find ways to chisel a small piece of gravel from these stones to carry home to drive away evil spirits.

It was believed that Emperor Yongle had consulted a Taoist Feng Shui Master to construct the Temple of Heaven. A lot of Taoist symbolism was designed into the temple. The layout of the Temple of Heaven followed the principles of the Book of Changes by Zeng Xiangyu. It was enlarged and rebuilt during the Ming Dynasty under Emperor Jiajing and in the Qing Dynasty under Emperor Qianlong. The Temple of Heaven was visited by the Emperors of the Ming and Qing dynasties for annual ceremonies of prayer to Heaven for a good harvest.

Once inside, we headed to a major attraction - the Hall of Prayer for Good Harvests (祈年殿). It is a magnificent triple-gabled circular building, 36 meters in diameter and 38 meters tall, built on three levels of marble stone base, where the Emperor prayed for good harvests. The building is completely made of wood, without the use of any nails. Although I couldn't locate the meridian spot using Feng Shui principles, it is believed that the triple-gabled circular building is sitting on a meridian spot. I have pulled out the Qi Men chart several times to do a Feng Shui forecast, and it gave me the same answer.

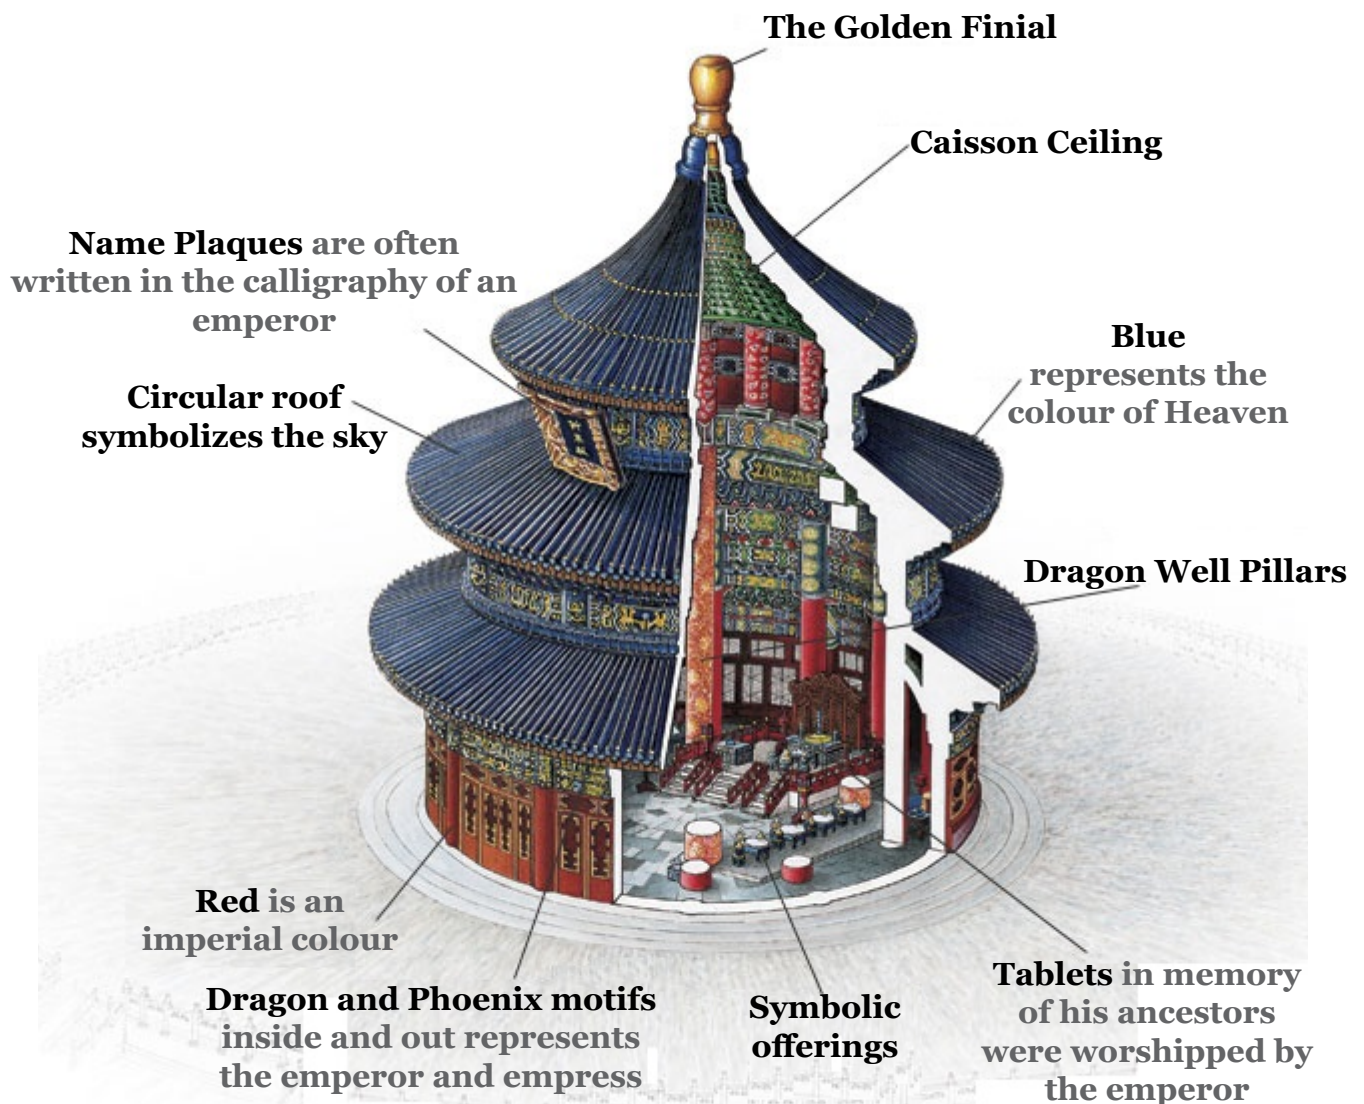

The triple-gabled circular building contains very Yang Qi. The circular shape combined with a cone-shaped roof help the Qi to circulate smoothly to the entire building, eliminating stagnant energy. In fact the Qi in a circular shaped building will circulate around and around causing lots of energy to build up. With this high level of Yang Qi, the Hall of Prayer for Good Harvests works well as a prayer hall. With such good energy, my friend and I took the opportunity to quickly send our wishes to heaven with the help of Qi Men.

After making our wishes, we headed to the Imperial Vault of Heaven (皇穹宇) and then, the Circular Mound Altar (圜丘坛). The Imperial Vault of Heaven is a single-gabled circular building, built on a single level marble stone base. It resembles the Hall of Prayer for Good Harvests, but is smaller in size. The building is located south of the Hall of Prayer for Good Harvests. The Echo Wall surrounding the Imperial Vault of Heaven is an interesting piece of architecture. It is surrounded by a smooth circular wall that can transmit sounds over long distances.

At the Circular Mound Altar (圓丘壇), located south of the Imperial Vault of Heaven, we saw an empty circular platform on three levels of marble stone. Each level is decorated with lavishly carved dragons. A tour guide told us that the centre of the altar is a round slate called the Heart of Heaven (天心石) and is sometimes referred to as the Supreme Yang (太陽石). This was where the Emperor prayed for favourable weather. I was surprised to find out that the sound of the prayer will be reflected by the guardrail, creating significant resonance. In the olden days, they believed that this resonance will help the prayer reach the Heavens.

The Temple of Heaven is a magical piece of architecture incorporating cosmology patterns and symbolism. Many Chinese ancient prayer buildings were related in various ways to cosmology, as it was seen as an effective way to establish a connection with Heaven.

There are altogether 10 types of Day Masters arising from the two different polarities (Yin and Yang) of the Five Elements. FACE READING: MOLES AND YOUR HEALTH

The practice of physiognomy or face reading is an ancient art that has been a part of Chinese medicine for centuries. Over the course of time, this art has been expanded to include the reading of a person's destiny and personality.

Unusual moles, blemishes, markings, or changes in the texture of the skin may be a sign of melanoma, a type of skin cancer or a warning that it might occur. Moles on your face and body can tell a lot about your overall health too. In this issue, we continue with the topic of moles and help you to understand a little about what your moles say about your health. A mole can be classified as one of the following types:

Moles or birthmarks present at birth

This type of mole is called a congenital mole. These moles are usually harmless. Only about 1 percent of people who have congenital moles develop skin cancer. In Chinese culture, it is believed that some of these moles or birthmarks were intentionally marked on the person after their passing so that they can be recognized by family or enemies after rebirth.

In face reading, these moles usually serve as a warning of possible future obstacles.

Acquired moles

Acquired moles or marks account for most moles. They develop over time as you grow from your childhood until old age. These moles include blemishes, marks caused by injuries and skin discolouration. They are usually smaller than a quarter inch, and are thought to be due to excessive sun exposure. Most acquired moles will not develop into skin cancer.

Acquired moles represent signs of causes and effect. It is the principle of establishing an event or action as the direct result of another. What you do now has a direct effect on your future. The mole appears or grows on your face or body, warning you that actions you have taken in the past may give rise to certain results in the future.

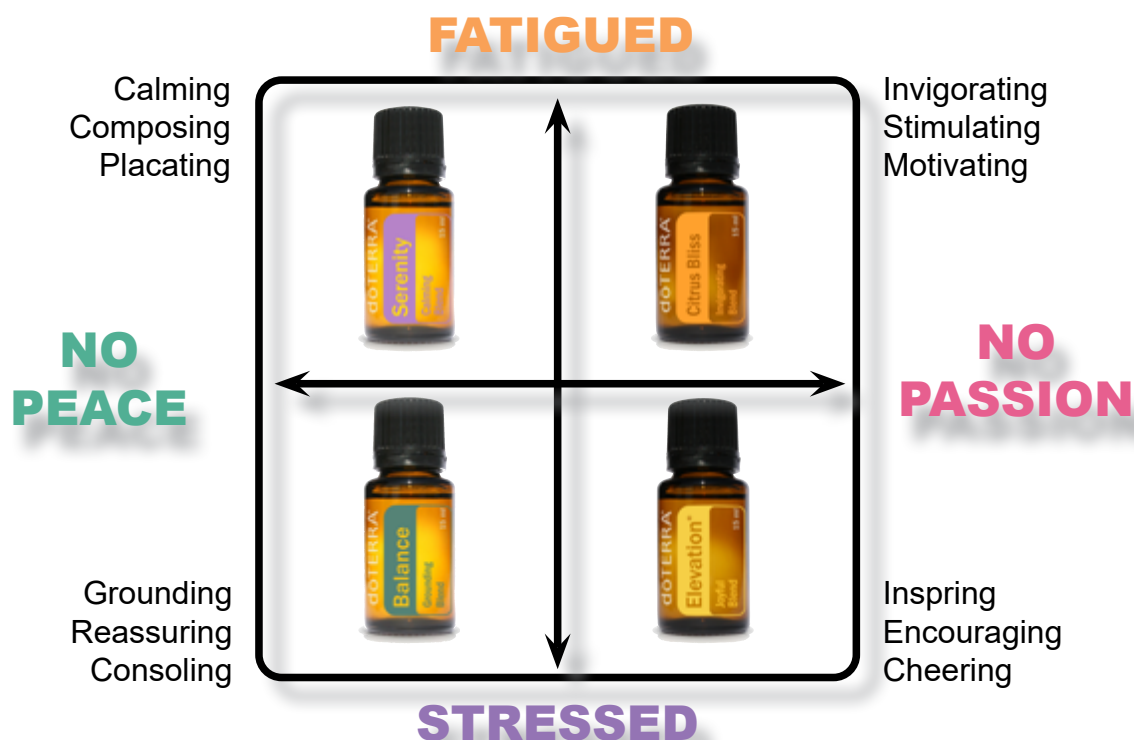

In terms of health, your diet and exercise habit or lack of it, have an impact on your future health. Depending on where it appears, these moles indicate kidney, liver, gallbladder, bowel and digestive problems. A red dot or mole inside the eye may also indicate heart problems.

Atypical moles

Atypical moles are unusual-looking benign moles. These moles can be present at birth or grow on the body later on. These moles are larger than 0.5 cm and shaped irregularly. These moles are usually uneven in colour, with a dark brown centre or a lighter or reddish colour. People who have them are at a higher risk of developing melanoma or skin cancer.

Atypical moles that are present at birth usually indicates an inherited risk of developing skin cancer. Atypical moles that grow as you get older are usually a warning that you will develop skin cancer due to the external environment you come into contact with or due to your unhealthy diet.

Activating and Cultivating Your Deities Daily

In all our articles about Fa Qi Men, we have mentioned that in order to get what you want and fulfil your wishes, one has to get into an “Alpha State of Mind”. We have also given tips and methods on how to go into an alpha state.

So what is an alpha state of mind?

Scientifically, it is explained as where the brain operates at partial conscious awareness and partial subconscious predominance at the same time, in cycles between 9Hz & 14Hz. From my experience and understanding, it simply means that one’s mind is clear and focused. It is a state where you are in mild daydream or light relaxation state.

Do you remember a time when you were very focused on something or so engrossed doing something that you sort of lose track of time and what is happening around you? This is an alpha state of mind. But you may find that when you try to go to this alpha state to make a wish, it is difficult to focus and you are unsure about whether you are actually in the right state of mind.

Each person’s Qi Men Destiny Chart has his or her own personal Destiny Palace marked by a direction based on his or her Day Master. That Palace contains your own unique Guardian Angel. There are all together Ten Deities under the realm of Universe in Fa Qi Men study. In this issue, we will show you the fun way to activate and cultivate your Guardian Angel on a daily basis starting with Phoenix Deity. When you are connected strongly and intuitively with your Guardian Angel, you do not have to go enter into the alpha state of mind to make wishes. This makes wish making a lot easier.

Phoenix Deity

Keyword: Voice & Communication

Phoenix Deity is regarded as one of the fieriest deities of the Ten Deities. It represents sound, voice, communication, legal issues, official statements, agreements or contracts in black and white, social media, gossip and scandal.

The Chinese consider the Phoenix Deity as an entity similar the “crow’s mouth.” Crow’s mouth indicates someone who brings bad things or bad luck by talking about them. This deity has been used by some Taoist monks to invoke curses.

Asking your Guardian Angel to fulfil your wish is easier and gives a faster result. Here are some fun ways to activate and cultivate your Phoenix Deity on a daily basis.

1. Make a wish in the direction of your Destiny Palace

Each person has a strong connection to the energy of the Universe in a certain direction based on Fa Qi Men practices. This direction is the direction of your Destiny Palace. Making wishes with your back to this direction makes it easier to get your wish fulfilled. Every time you make a wish in the direction of your Destiny Palace, you are actually activating and cultivating the Qi that connects you to the Universe.

2. Meditate and focus on your throat “chakra”

The Phoenix Deity represents voice and communication. Similarly, the function of the Throat chakra is driven by the principle of expression and communication. The Throat chakra is the fifth chakra. When you meditate, focus your energy or attention at the centre of the neck at the level of the throat - the passage of the energy between the lower parts of the body and the head. Unlocking the power of Throat chakra through meditation will help you to cultivate and improve your connection with the Phoenix Deity.

3. Empower your voice

Imagine how people swear or curse. They do it with anger and passion. They use strong language that stir others emotionally. They become emotional. This is the power the Phoenix Deity.

So speak out loud. Let your voice be heard by everyone. Speak with passion. Your voice creates and transmits energy. When your voice is relaxed, rooted in your body and is being heard, you become more confident. This is the best way to activate and create a stronger connection with the Phoenix Deity.

4. Chanting

Chanting means to say words or phrases many times in a rhythmic or singsong manner, usually out loud. It is often used in religious prayers by using a small number of musical notes that are repeated many times. Anyone can practice chanting because overall it's a non-religious practice just like meditation. You can look up mantras and practice chanting a mantra that resonates with you. Or you can make up your own personal mantra. Since chanting works with one's voice, it is a good way to activate your Phoenix Deity. You can chant one of the Buddha's wish fulfilling mantras, "Nam-myoho-renge-kyo." The mantra means "earthly desires are enlightenment." When you chant about your desires, it helps to purify your life, manifest your highest potential and realise your desires.

5. Sing along

If chanting mantras are not your cup of tea, singing works the same way too. Singing is a fun and enjoyable way to activate and cultivate your Phoenix Deity. If you hear songs that express sentiments similar to your wishes, sing along.

6. Write your wish down

Communication also includes written messages, words, agreements, contracts, drawn pictures or photos. When you write your wishes down, you have activated the Phoenix Deity. Have your wishes shown in black and white or in a picture. While the Nine Heaven Deity works better with photos and pictures, both written words and photos work with the Phoenix Deity.

People who have the Phoenix Deity as their Guardian Angel have a higher success rate of fulfilling their New Year's Resolutions if they have written it down.

7. Tell the Universe what you want.

It is important to read your wishes out loud if your Guardian Angel is the Phoenix Deity. This is to reaffirm your wishes to the universe. The sound of your voice activates the Phoenix Deity. When you have written down your wishes or New Year's Resolution, remember to read your wishes out loud every morning while facing the mirror or with your back to the direction of your Destiny Palace.

8. Spread your wishes on social media

Social media is one of the fastest way to spread the voice of the people, especially gossip and rumours. The Phoenix Deity represents these activities. When you are writing your blog, posting on Facebook or tweeting your thoughts, you are activating the Phoenix Deity. So blog about your wishes, post your wishes on Facebook or tweet about your wishes on Twitter to fulfil your wishes faster. The multitudes of voices spreading your wishes on social media will enhance the influence of the Phoenix Deity.

At one point it was the trend to post the "What People Think I Do / What I Really Do" meme on social media. It is a series of visual charts depicting a range of preconceptions associated with a particular field of occupation or expertise. I too created one on Chinese Metaphysics and shared it on Facebook without giving much thought to it. I have now since realized that one of the photos in the meme, which represented my wish then, has been fulfilled. I now travel to interesting places and write Feng Shui stories about them once every year.

9. Swear and Curse Positively

Research has shown that people who swear a lot are more forthright and have more persuasive power. That's because cursing is motivated by strong and authentic emotions. If you have a propensity for profanities, use it positively. Always say what you want passionately with strong feeling. Spit out your wishes like someone who is cursing. Check out activation no. 3, empowering your voice.

10. Give your pet a name that reflects your wishes

The Chinese always like to call their pet dog, "Wang Cai" (旺财). It means prospering wealth. They let their pet dog roam around the neighbourhood. When it is time for dinner, they will call Wang Cai to come home. At the same time they are also calling prospering wealth to come to their home too.

If your Guardian Angel is the Phoenix Deity, this will work for you too. Give your pet a name that reflects your wishes. Keep calling your pet to come to you!

We hope you have fun cultivating the Phoenix Deity! Stay tuned for another Guardian Angel in our next issue.

Question Yvonne

When there are two pillars having the same HS and EB on a Bazi chart, I was told that this means I have a Fu Yin chart in my Bazi. This happens to me since my Day and Month pillar are identical. Can I know how a Fu Yin chart will impact my luck this year and my 10-year luck pillar? Which area I should be wary of? Thanks.

Date of Birth: 19 August 1977
Time of Birth: Dog Hour
Gender: Female

Just Ask

Dear Yvonne,

Fu Yin in the chart has less negative effect than Fu Yin arising from the luck cycle and not all Fu Yin is negative. Fu Yin in your chart shows that you may encounter like-minded friends, especially in the office.

There is an identical sign on your Month and Day Pillar which is the Monkey sign. Those who have Monkey sign will face some challenges due to external forces. Since it happens to be on your Day and Month branches, these challenges will affect your career and family life. Your spouse may also face challenges due to economic instability.

Only watch out during your 57 years old Luck Pillar. It may be better to retire to mitigate the Fu Yin effect then.

Question Annie

His DOB is 1/9/1983 at Rabbit Hour. Is he likely to meet a suitable girl before the year is out who will be his steady? Please provide any tips/guide to help him.

Date of Birth: 1 September 1983
Time of Birth: Rabbit Hour
Gender: Male

Just Ask

Dear Annie,

Not this year. He may meet someone in early 2018. The potential girl is very shy so if he is interested he needs to be the one who takes more initiative.

飛廉 Flying Chaste

The month of the Pig brings mixed influences. In general the month will see more helpful and friendly people around. It is a great month for networking. The future looks bright for those in logistics and the import and export business. The energy also favours expanding careers or businesses overseas if you have the intention. Employees can look forward to positive career progress, and their contribution and hard work being recognized.

The presence of inauspicious stars indicates an environment that will be prone to accidents related to transportation. Travel with care. Keep your belongings and travel documents safe.

If the month's Qi is unfavourable to you, especially those who have the Snake or Monkey at the Hour and Year Pillar, be careful of accidents and injury.

This month's energy does not favour those who have the following zodiacs: Snake, Pig and Monkey.

This month's energy favours those who have the following zodiacs: Rabbit, Goat and Tiger.

Wood Day Masters (甲 Jia Yang Wood and 乙 Yi Yin Wood), should try their best to avoid gossip and getting into arguments. Your reputation is at stake. Be selective of new friends while you are networking.

Fire Day Masters (丙 Bing Yang Fire and 丁 Ding Yin Fire), wealth luck is strong. Before you rush out to invest your money, study your proposed investments thoroughly.

Earth Day Masters (戊 Wu Yang Earth and 己 Ji Yin Earth) you are bursting with ideas. Turn your ideas into your wealth. Do not contemplate too much.

Metal Day Masters (庚 Geng Yang Metal and 辛 Xin Yin Metal), your affinity luck with people is strong. This is the best time to network to get some fresh ideas and make some new friends.

Similar to Metal Day Masters, Water Day Masters (壬 Ren Yang Water and 癸 Gui Yin Water), your affinity luck with people is strong. If you have a good business plan, look for an angel investor.

Tiger

The Tiger sign can look forward to good tidings and positive news coming your way. With a little more effort, you can do a great job and reach for the stars. Your path ahead is clear, put in your full effort. Success awaits you.

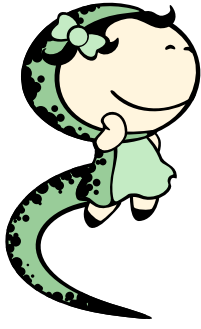

Rabbit

Rabbits can look back on how far they have come. Whatever negative events that have been troubling you will have passed by now. Take this time to make new friends and meet positive people. Your hard work and efforts will be rewarded.

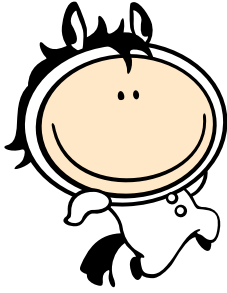

Dragon

It is a stable and quiet time for Dragons. This may be a boring month for the adventurous Dragon. This is a good time to take up new courses to cultivate and broaden your mind.

Snake

Snake people are going to experience a hectic and stressful month. You will receive extra work and responsibility. Remember to say “No” if your hands are full. Remember that quality trumps quantity.

Horse

Horses should keep a low profile this month. Do not get involved in idle talk and gossip. There are plenty of people willing to offer you a helping hand whenever problems arise. You need to swallow your ego and ask politely.

Goat

Goats can look forward to a stable month. You will enjoy the support and love of your friends and family. There are some minor wealth opportunities awaiting you.

Monkey

Some challenges lie ahead for Monkeys. Your mood will be affected too. Be flexible to counter your problems. Be upbeat! Noble people are around to offer you help whenever you encounter obstacles. You also have the resources to resolve your own problems.

Rooster

Roosters should keep their eyes wide open for the right mentor so that they would not miss that person. This special person will be the key to unlocking your potential. Be humble and modest.

Dog

You are more fortunate than you think. Fretting over problems will never solve them. Dogs should keep a positive mindset. Be up-beat! It is a good month for learning new things. Whatever you decide to learn will be beneficial to you in the future even though it may be an insignificant hobby at this point.

Pig

Pigs can be their own downfall. Everything will be all right if Pigs follow the rules and abide by the law. Do not take short-cuts even if they seem to be the fastest road to success. Nothing is what it seems.

Rat

You have the winds at your back. Good fortune is following you so Rats should stay focused and work harder. Put in 110% effort into all you do. You will reach your goal faster than you think.

Ox

The key word for the Ox this month is “gentleness.” Use the soft approach to resolve problems. You can turn bad tidings into good fortune. There are plenty of people willing to give you a hand if only you just ask.
