Travelling Safely with Help from the Cosmic Trinity: Heaven Luck

If you are a frequent traveller because of work and business, you will still need to travel even if the annual auxiliary stars indicate negative travel experiences.

According to Chinese Metaphysics studies, each person's Destiny is determined based on three types of luck, known as the Cosmic Trinity. The Cosmic Trinity is made up of Heaven Luck, Earth Luck and Man Luck.

Heaven Luck

While you cannot do much about Heaven Luck which is determined at birth based on the date and time of your birth, you can still manoeuvre 'future' Heaven Luck. How? 'Future' Heaven Luck is about selecting auspicious dates to carry out important activities. Obviously, if your Destiny chart encounters one or more of the annual inauspicious stars (refer to Travelling Safely – Man Luck on page 14), travelling becomes an important activity.

If you are a frequent traveller, it is almost impossible to limit your travel plans to only a few auspicious dates each month.

What can you do then?

1. Avoid General Inauspicious Days

Besides the above dates that are inauspicious personally to you based on your Bazi Chart, you should also avoid ‘破’ Destruction, ‘歲破’ Year Breaker and ‘廢日’ Four Abandonment days. You can refer to the Good Dates Planner to identify when these days occur to avoid travelling on these days.

2. Avoid Travelling on the Month or Day clashing with your Month and Year Branches

Avoid travelling on the day and month that clashes with your Year or Month Branch. Refer to the ‘Clash Relationship’ in the Reference Table: Bazi Earthly Branches Relationship on page 71.

時 Hour	日 Day	月 Month	年 Year
				天干 Heavenly Stems
			戌 Xu Dog Yang Earth 	地支 Earthly Branches
				藏干 Hidden Stem

Example 1: If you have a Dog sign on your Year Branch then avoid travelling on a Dragon month or day.

八字 Bazi Chart: Example 2
時 Hour	日 Day	月 Month	年 Year
□		□	□	天干 Heavenly Stems
		卯 Mao Rabbit Yin Wood		地支 Earthly Branches
				藏干 Hidden Stem

Example 2: If you have a Rabbit sign on your Month Branch then avoid travelling on a Rooster month or day.

3. Avoid Travelling on the Month or Day where your Seven Killings Star Appears on the Heavenly Stem

Avoid travelling on the day and the month where your Seven Killings Star appears on the Heavenly Stem. Based on your Day Master, refer to the '7K' column in the Reference Table: Bazi Ten Gods on page 72 to find your Seven Killings Star.

時 Hour	日 Day	月 Month	年 Year
□	壬 Ren Yang Water	□	□	天干 Heavenly Stems
				地支 Earthly Branches
				藏干 Hidden Stem

Example 3: If your Day Master is Ren Water, you should avoid travelling when '戊' Wu Earth appears on the Day or Month Heavenly Stem. In 2019, Wu Earth appears on the Heavenly Stem for the month of the Dragon (April 5 - May 5).

According to Chinese Metaphysics studies, Earth Luck is the type of luck specifically associated with Feng Shui. Earth Luck is determined by the influence of the natural or manmade environments surrounding a person. Thus, where a person lives, or works is important.

Earth Luck

There are four locations that affect one's travel luck. These locations are known as the Growth Stars;

1. The Tiger location in the Northeast 3 sector
2. The Snake location in the Southeast 3 sector
3. The Monkey location in the Southwest 3 sector
4. The Pig location in the Northwest 3 sector

In general, people who travel a lot this year will face many obstacles because all four sectors are affected in some way or another.

The Southwest 3 sector coincides with the Five Yellow. The Grand Duke resides at the Northwest 3 sector thus the Year Breaker falls into the Southeast 3 sector. The Northeast 3 is visited by the Illness Star.

Based on the location of the main door of the property, one of the Growth Stars will have a greater effect than the others on the occupants of the property.

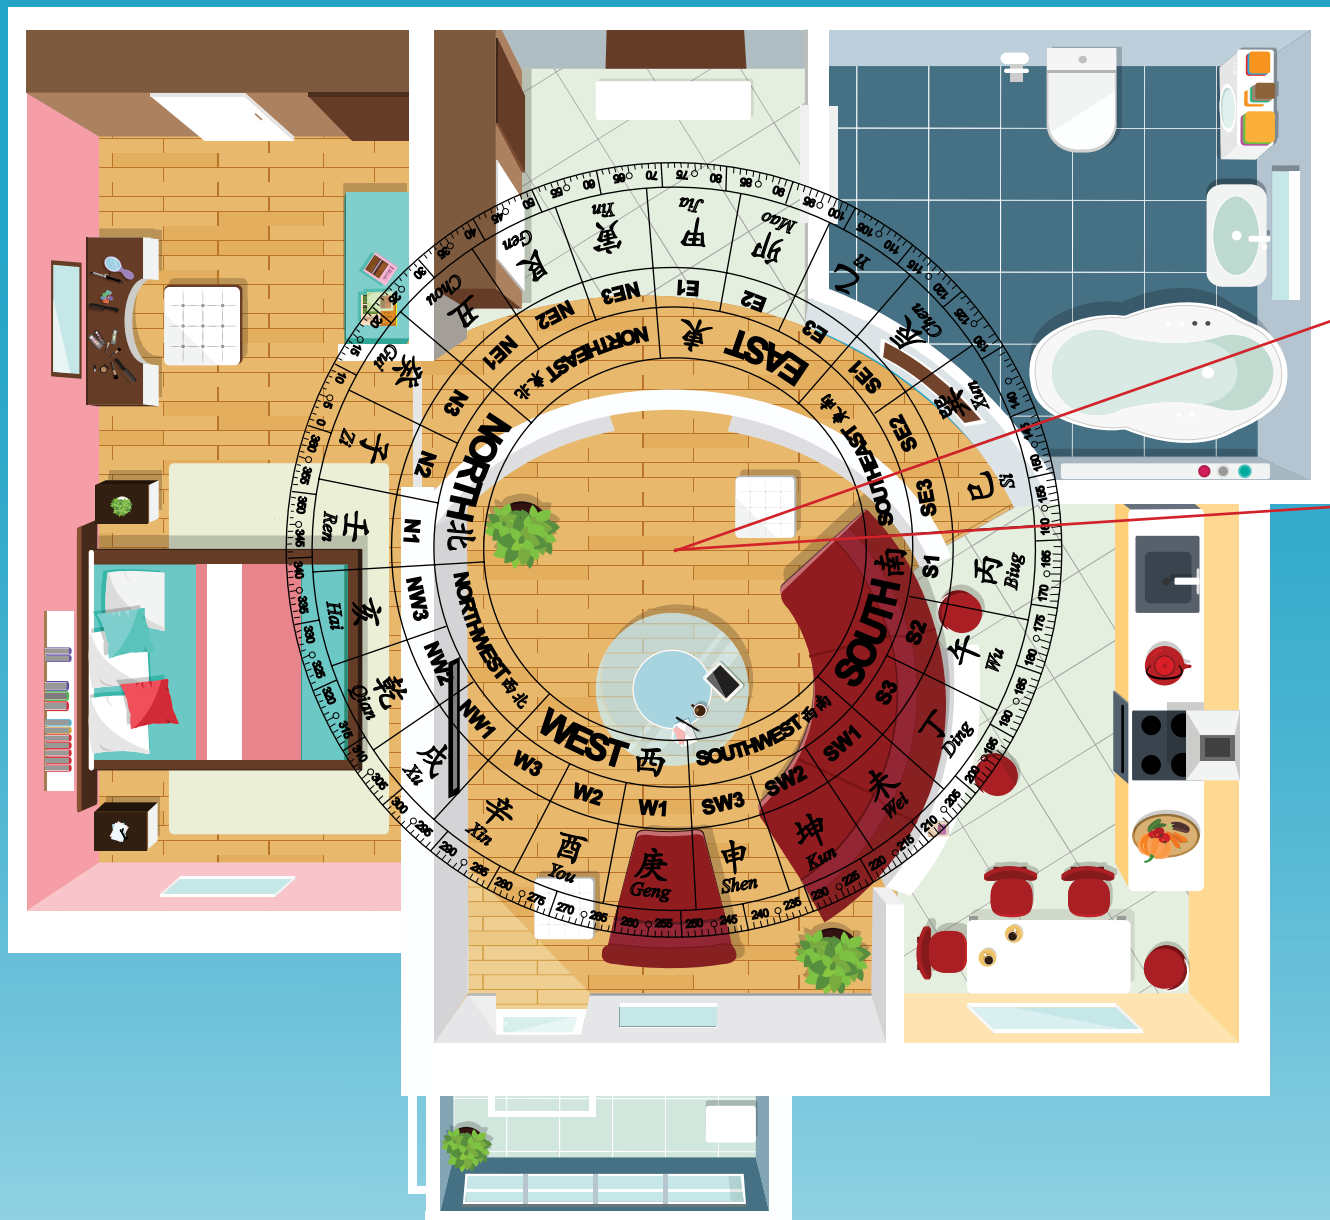

Refer to Table 1 to check which Growth Star has the biggest impact on your office or home.

Table 1: Growth Star Sector Based on Direction Faced by the Main Door

Direction	Growth Star Sector
East 3 Southeast 1 Southwest 2/3 North 1/2	寅 Tiger Northeast 3
East 1/2 South 3 Southwest 1 Northwest 2/3	巳 Snake Southeast 3
South 1/2 West 3 Northwest 1 Northeast 2/3	申 Monkey Southwest 3
Southeast 2/3 West 1/2 North 3 Northeast 1	亥 Pig Northwest 3

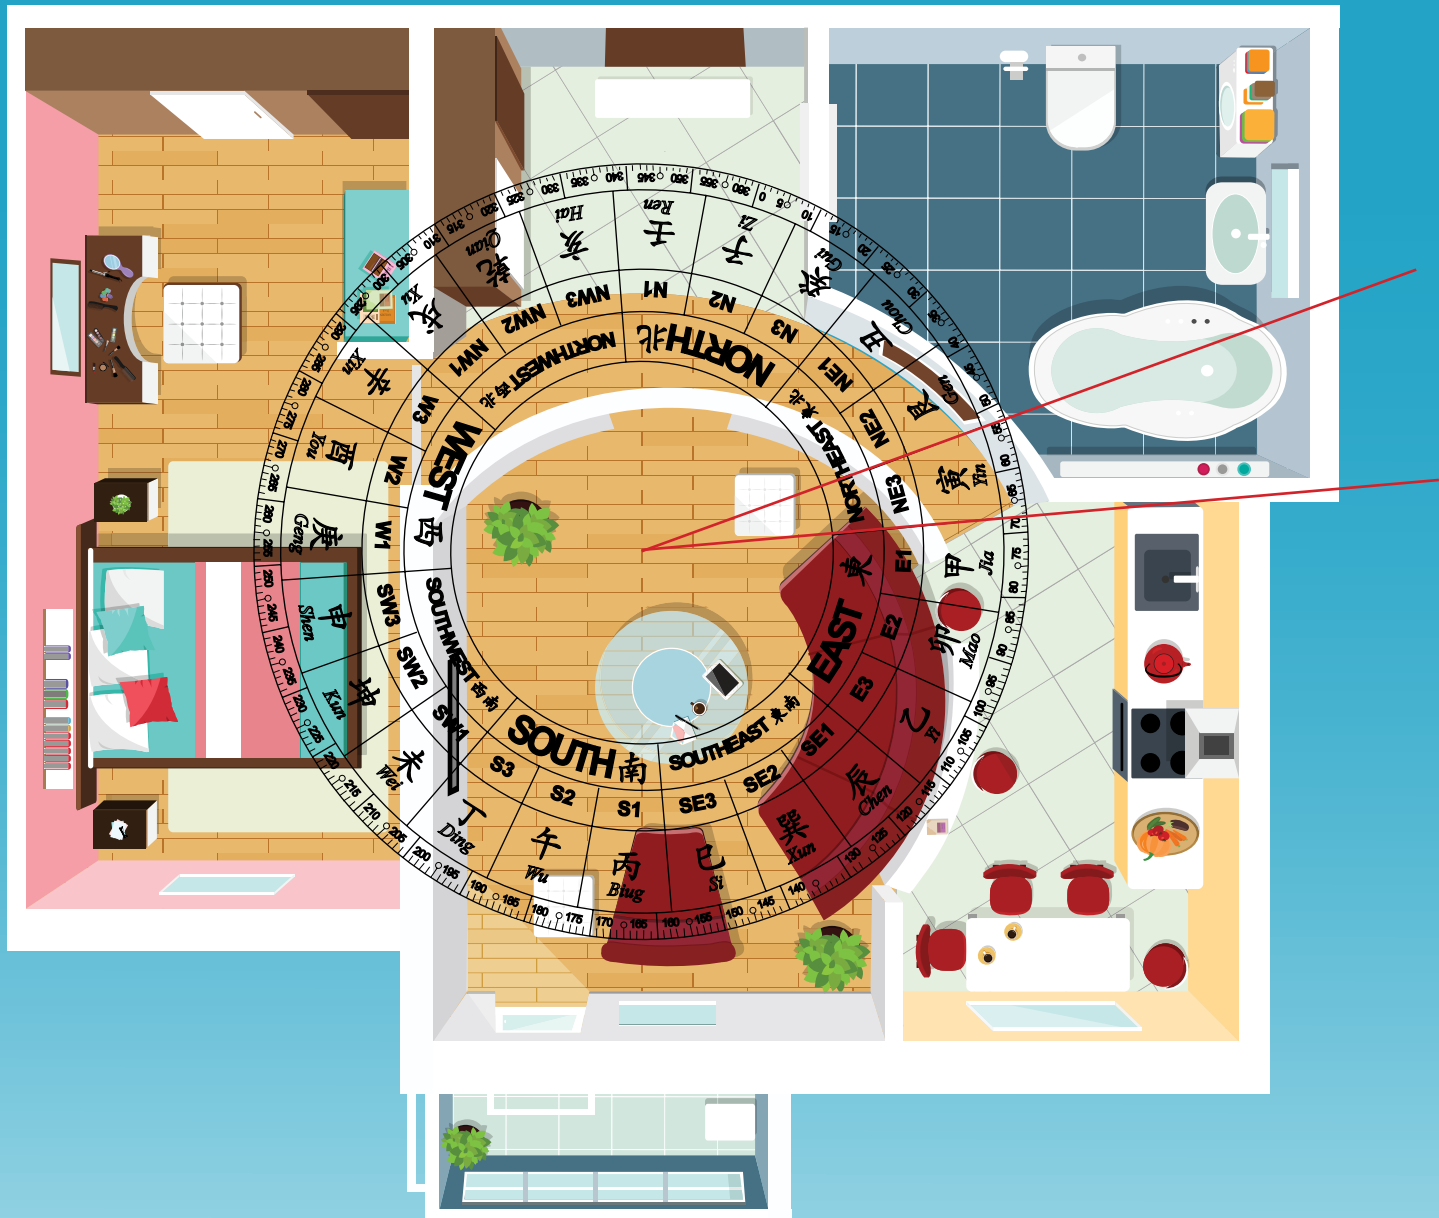

For example, if the main door of the property faces East 1, the Snake, which is the Growth Star in the Southeast 3 sector, will have a stronger influence on the occupants. Occupants who travel frequently will encounter flight delays or cancellations, long queues at security checkpoints and higher expenses while travelling.

EAST 1 MAIN DOOR

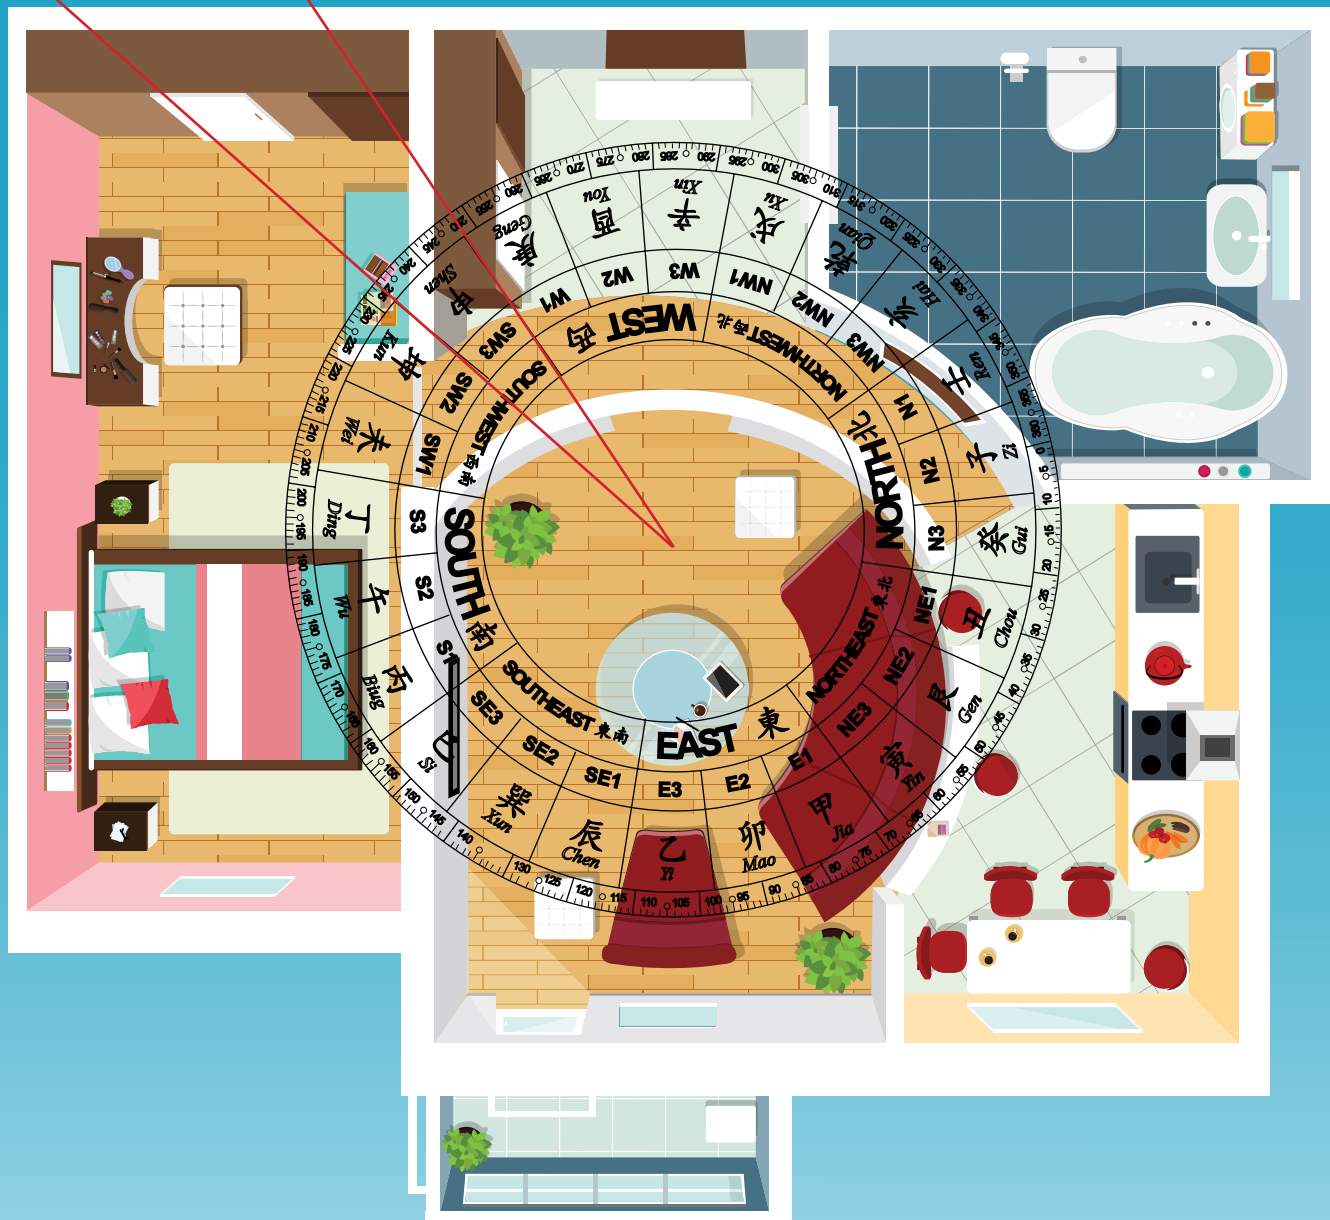

If the main door of the property faces North 1, the Tiger, which is the Growth Star in the Northeast 3 sector, will have a stronger influence on the occupants. Occupants who travel frequently will encounter health issues while travelling.

MAIN DOOR

If the main door of the property faces West 3, the Monkey, which is the Growth Star in the Southwest 3 sector, will have a stronger influence on the occupants. Occupants who travel frequently will encounter mishaps, accidents, injuries and high expenses while travelling.

WEST 3 MAIN DOOR

If the main door of the property faces Southeast 3, the Pig, which is the Growth Star in the Northwest 3 sector, will have a stronger influence on the occupants. Occupants who travel frequently will encounter authority issues. It is best to double check the validity of travel documents such as passports and visas. Avoid bringing sensitive items and declare controlled items to avoid being detained at Customs checkpoints.

Travelling Safely with Help from the Cosmic Trinity: Man Luck

According to Chinese Metaphysics studies, each person's Destiny is determined based on three types of luck, known as the Cosmic Trinity. The Cosmic Trinity is made up of Heaven Luck, Earth Luck and Man Luck.

Man Luck

Man Luck is the luck we create for ourselves from our thoughts, virtues, actions and ideas. Man Luck can be very powerful as there are no limits, except for those we impose upon ourselves. One has complete control over Man Luck.

Through 'awareness' and 'mindfulness' we can sidestep a lot of troubles during our travels. Should your Destiny chart encounter the following annual inauspicious stars, here are what you should pay attention to or avoid;

災煞 Calamity Sha

This star always indicates unexpected disruption of plans or unexpected problems. It's important to plan ahead! Allocate ample time so that you can deal with the unexpected. Pick suitable and safe accommodation. If you can, travel with a colleague.

羊刃 Goat Blade, 天狗 Sky Dog or 白虎 White Tiger

These stars always indicate accidents and injury. Keep a first aid kit on hand. Protect yourself with travel insurance that covers overseas medical expenses, emergency medical expenses, medical evacuation costs and lost items. Keep in touch regularly with your family and the office whenever you are on a work or personal trip.

羊刃 Goat Blade or 劫煞 Robbery Sha

These stars indicate loss of belongings due to theft or robbery. Be mindful of your belongings. Try not to go out late at night. Avoid the seedier areas of the cities you're visiting. Keep a photocopy of your passport and important documents in a safe place. Use ATMs in the shopping mall where there are people around.

If you are mugged, don't fight, take flight instead. Throw the money at your mugger and make a run for it. Run to public places where there are many people. It is better to lose a few dollars than risk serious injury.

天煞 Sky Sha, 地煞 Earth Sha or 天厄 Dark Sky

These stars denote encounters with natural disasters. Always check the weather condition in the area you are travelling to. Stay informed about impending weather issues. Consider postponing or cancelling the trip if adverse weather conditions continue. Some travel insurance plans do cover trip cancellations due to weather conditions. Take this into consideration when purchasing travel insurance.

病符 Sickness or 伏屍 Hidden Corpse

These stars denote illness. If your Destiny chart meets with either one of these illness stars, you should avoid travelling to places with hygiene issues. If travel to these places is unavoidable, avoid street foods. Always ensure that you consume meals that are not too oily, cooked thoroughly and made with fresh produce at clean restaurants. Drinking water is the easiest source of infection, especially during the monsoon season, since contamination is the highest during this season. It is best to drink bottled water to avoid contracting diseases. Bring a bottle of hand sanitizer with you. Sanitizing your hands after using the washroom or a meal is important to prevent infections.

Travelling Star

In 281 AD, the original copy of the fantasy biography of King Mu was exhumed from the tomb of Wei Xiang-zi, the King of Wei. The text had a length of 6 scrolls and was written in the ancient small seal script. It was titled "Biography of King Mu, Son of Heaven" (穆天子傳 Mu Tianzi Zhuan). This piece of literature became an important part of the collection of imperial libraries and modern scholars. Later versions were sometimes called "Travels of the Zhou King." One of the early chapters described the story of how King Mu, (周穆王 Zhōu Mù Wáng 976~922 BC) traveled west with eight of his best horses to the mystical Kunlun Mountain. King Mu traveled 12300 li to meet the Queen Mother of the West 西王母 to ask for the gift of immortality. He brought silk, wine, gifts and poems as offerings. In return, he received lots of jades and jewels from the Queen Mother of the West. King Mu and his entourage feasted happily with the Queen Mother of the West at the blue gem pool. Upon her departure from the banquet, the Queen Mother of the West left a note,

"Longevity to Your Highness,

Enjoyed Your Stay,

We Shall Meet Again."

King Mu of Zhou lived to the ripe old age of 105.

As you may already know, travel was a privilege in the old days. It was difficult and expensive to travel due to unforeseen dangers, scarcity of well-maintained roads, and the variability of travel times as ships were subject to the whims of the winds and the tides. Travel was mostly done in the interest of warfare, diplomacy, general state building or trade. Only rich landlords, merchants, government officials and members of nobility travelled frequently. The peasants and middle class will only travel to the city for the sake of taking the imperial examination. Soldiers, on the other hand, travelled for the sake of warfare. Mass migrations happened only when there were terrible disasters such as earthquakes, plagues, droughts and floods.

Most people travelled on foot while the nobility and the wealthy travelled by carriage. Women travelers were even rarer in the past. It was frowned upon for a woman to leave the house. For a woman to go to a temple for prayer or to go out at night for a festival was a luxury.

Thus, the auxiliary star (also known as Sky Horse) was not seen positively in the old days. In ancient China, all the government's letters and documents were delivered and collected at the Yi Zhan (驿站), the post station before being sent out to the officials or the emperor. Horses were used as the mode of transportation. Sometimes pigeons were also used to carry short messages. This is how the Travelling Star came to be named Yi Ma or Sky Horse in Bazi study. It generally carries the essence of movement.

Why was the Sky Horse Star viewed negatively in the old days?

Often the Sky Horse brings about the feeling of unrest, recklessness and in extreme cases, it can denote a rebellious nature. Sky Horse is also known as the Growth Star. It denotes being young and irresponsible. In a society that valued peacefulness, harmony, co-operation and clannishness, the Sky Horse's appearance in a person's destiny chart was regarded negatively.

The appearance of the Sky Horse in the destiny chart indicates that the person is always on the move. He or she most likely needs to live and travel far away from home for unforeseeable reasons. In closed-knitted and clannish ancient Chinese families, children were taught to be cooperative and to work for the benefit and survival of the family and the clan. Often family members were encouraged to live together in the same village or in the nearby town. The only reason to leave home and go far away was exile. Even if the person stayed on in his birthplace, Sky Horse indicates a life filled with a constant heavy and tough workload.

The Sky Horse also indicates the ownership and establishment of a new home. In ancient Chinese society, rich families will have all the siblings and their families living in the same big home. In the modern day, having a new home and moving out to live independently is seen as an achievement. However, in a clannish society, it was not seen in the same light. It was seen as a terrible thing to live apart as it meant dividing up the family's properties. This was an unpleasant event, especially for the head of the family who will be seen as unable to take care of the family or to have acted unfairly towards them. The person who made the request was also seen negatively. He will be regarded as being not respectful to the elders. The whole event was regarded as shameful in a Confucian society.

The presence of the Sky Horse in the Spouse Palace was also not welcome. It denotes that a daughter will be married to a far-away city or a daughter-in-law will be coming from a different clan, or will be a foreigner who speaks a different dialect and has different practices. For women, even if they did not settle too far from home after marriage, a Sky Horse in the Spouse Palace indicates that the husband will not be home most of the time.

The presence of the Sky Horse in the Career Palace indicates changes in career or at work. Those who passed the imperial examinations may be granted an official post in a faraway land. Moving far away from home, thus leaving parents and wives behind, was regarded as a sad event. In the old days, it was harder to keep in touch. A new job was also regarded as a bad event as the ancient Chinese valued loyalty and regarded it as a virtue.

Sky Horse Star, the Auspicious Auxiliary Star

However, in this modern age, Sky Horse is seen more as an auspicious auxiliary star than an inauspicious star as the changes it brings also denote new opportunities.

The presence of Sky Horse in the Month or Year Branch indicates that a person has the opportunity to study and work abroad. If the Sky Horse meets with the Influence Star under the Ten Gods Element, it denotes a possible job promotion or changing to a new job in a higher position.

Marrying a foreign spouse is not such a big taboo these days. Instead, it is viewed by some as pretty adventurous.

In business, the presence of the Sky Horse indicates an opportunity to expand into the overseas market.

The Sky Horse also denotes wealth. When the Sky Horse meets the Wealth Star, the person will encounter a sudden wealth opportunity and windfall luck.

The Sky Horse is also viewed positively as it denotes an overseas vacation.

It will be a hectic year filled with changes and unfulfilled goals for people with the Tiger sign. The Study Hall is also present in the Tiger sign offering opportunities for students to study abroad. However, they will find it difficult to adjust to living abroad.

As you may have noticed, the Sky Horse only affects people with the Tiger, Snake, Monkey and Pig signs. These four zodiacs are classified as Growth Stars. People with these signs in their Bazi Charts tend to be reckless.

Asking for protection during the Hungry Ghost Festival

The Hungry Ghost Festival is also known as Zhongyuan Festival by Taoists or Yu Lan Pen Festival by Buddhists. This year the Hungry Ghost month starts on 1st August and lasts until 29th August. The Hungry Ghost Festival itself falls on 15th August 2019.

The Chinese have a custom of offering sacrifices to the deceased, and this is done during the Spring Festival, Qingming Festival and the Double Ninth Festival. What is the difference between these festivals versus the Hungry Ghost Festival? During the above festivals, offerings and prayers are made only for ancestors and relatives, while during the Hungry Ghost Festival, offerings and prayers are made to all ghosts and spirits. The ghosts are also free to roam the streets of the living world during the Hungry Ghost Festival.

During this period, you can ask the Chief Deity for protection from the negative effects of evil spirits and ghosts. Ask for protection with your back to the direction as listed in the table below.

The Magical City of Shanghai

Shanghai is one of my favourite cities in China. I enjoy visiting Shanghai despite the crowd. Yes, I feel that China is over-populated because I don't like crowds. Shanghai was named somewhere in the 11th-century during the Song dynasty. Since then, Shanghai remains prosperous until today. Despite China's tumultuous history, including wars, civil wars and the cultural revolution, Shanghai has never stopped flourishing. When Deng Xiaoping set off the transformation of China's economy in December 1978, Shanghai's rise was the fastest of all the cities in China. I believe that Shanghai's success can be attributed to the correct application of Feng Shui despite attempts by China's communist authorities to curb its practice.

I can understand why the Chinese communist party would want to curb Chinese Metaphysics practices. In times of uncertainty, overzealous and superstitious believers can easily fall prey to unscrupulous false masters who camouflage their greed with Feng Shui practices. Irresponsible Feng Shui masters and false miracle workers can cause wide-spread panic in a public with a traditional strong belief in all forms of metaphysics practices should they decide to make predictions of disasters. Still, these sanctions did not stop the right Feng Shui practices from being applied in Shanghai in recent times.

The Feng Shui of Shanghai

Shanghai is one of the cities that benefits from the dragon vein formed by the Yangtze River and the Yellow River as they flow from the Qinghai-Tibet Plateau in the east. This dragon vein covers a large part of China. In Feng Shui, it is relatively difficult to make use of the dragon vein, because the Qi is too strong, and the width of the vein can be too wide. Overly strong Qi can turn into Sha Qi. Thus, this vein cannot be fully utilized. We can only utilize the Qi from meridian spots that form around the dragon vein. The meridian spots are the gathering points of energy. The Qi at these spots is more stable and merciful.

Shanghai Map

Shanghai is known as the city of the water dragon. The meridian spot, formed by the two water dragons in Shanghai, comes from the Suzhou River and Huangpu River. Although you may think that it is the Lujiazui area in Pudong, which forms the pocket-shaped area right in front of the two-river formation, that receives the Qi from the veins and form the meridian spot, this is not so. Instead, the meridian spot is located where the Suzhou River flows into the Huangpu River in the west part of Shanghai near the Bund. This is because the water flows into the Huangpu River (refer to ① marked on the map above) instead of flowing out of the Huangpu River. Thus, the western part of Shanghai flourished and will continue to do so. The actual meridian spot is located in a small pocket at the inner part of the Suzhou river before Waibaidu bridge.

Walking along the Bund is like taking a walk in the 1920s. It is as if time stood still here. Even though the Bund is not the exact location of the meridian spot, it is an enjoyable place to visit. It gives the feeling that one is in the past and in the future at the same time. At night, the old historical buildings along the Bund twinkle with lights, while the brightly lit modern buildings of Pudong lie across the river. The contrast of old and new gives off a magical feeling.

The development of the Pudong area is very recent, hence its ultra-modern skyline. The Lujiazui area in Pudong has always been farmland. There had been no development because the place lacks meridian spots. However, the central government decided to develop and open up Pudong in 1990. It began with the construction of the Oriental Pearl Radio & Television Tower in 1991. The tower was completed in 1994 and became an important feature in the landform of Pudong.

How did Pudong start flourishing despite a lack of meridian spots?

The Oriental Pearl Tower and its two spheres attracted the Qi of the water dragon. This is the simple application of the Five Elements concept where the Metal Element produces the Water Element. Of course, a sphere-shaped metal object the size of a football will not be able to change the environment. Thus, we don't often attempt to transform the Qi of a property using the placement-of-object method. It gives minimal to no results. However, the Oriental Pearl Tower is tall enough and large enough to affect the environment. Thus, the water dragon was attracted to the Pudong area! This is why the Oriental Pearl Tower is the first iconic building in Pudong.

In 1995, the Bund History Museum (refer to ❷ marked on the map on page 23), which is a circular shaped building, was built at the mouth of the Suzhou River. It attracts Qi to West Shanghai and also diverts the flow of river water out to the Huangpu River (refer to ❸ marked on the map on page 23). Later, in 1999, the Shanghai International Conference Centre, with two sphere-shaped buildings on its left and right side, was built. This further reinforces the Metal Qi.

But how can the Qi be contained?

Just right after the Oriental Pearl Tower, there is a bright hall formed by the Lujiazui Central Green Space, which contains a lake, in the Lujiazui area (refer to ❹ marked on the map on page 23). At the same time, the Qi is drawn deeper into the Pudong area by the construction of the Lujiazui East Road, which connects to the Century Avenue Road that ends at Century Park (refer to ❺ marked on the map on page 23). On the map, you can see that Century Avenue Road is directly facing the Suzhou River. The road goes straight all the way to the southeast and ends in Century Park. Century Park is a big park, containing a lake, which contains the Qi for the Pudong area. This road becomes a substitute for a river. It becomes the "body" of the water dragon that was attracted from West Shanghai.

These two bright halls are known in the circle of Feng Shui masters as the first manmade meridian spots. I do not believe these constructions are mere coincidences, but rather town planning according to Feng Shui principles.

If you happen to be in Shanghai, do visit the two parks and West Shanghai before the Waibaidu bridge to absorb some of the positive Qi. You may find yourself enlightened financially!

There is something in Shanghai that is very exciting and alive - the idea of a city with two different souls, one from today and another from a long time ago, is amazing.

CORE CHARACTERISTICS

(丁 DING FIRE DAY MASTER)

There are altogether Ten Gods arising from the two different polarities (Yin and Yang) of the Five Elements' interaction with the Day Master. Each of these Five Elements supports, destroys, controls, or exhausts one another. In the previous issues, we have shown the characteristics of the Ten Gods. Moving forward, we will be exploring how we can derive the core character or structure based on the interaction of the Earthly Branch Element of the Month Pillar with each Day Master.

In this issue's Bazi 101, we want to explore the core character of the Yin Fire (丁 Ding) Day Master born in different months. The core character of these Yin Fire Day Masters is derived from the element in the Earthly Branch of the Month Pillar (refer to Table 1 below). There are altogether twelve Earthly Branches representing twelve months. Each Earthly Branch usually contains one to three Elements known as the Hidden Stems. The Hidden Stem represents the main Qi and sub-Qi of each Earthly Branch (refer to Table: Seasons and the Earthly Branches on page 68 to find out more about the Elements inside each of the Earthly Branches).

When the sub-Qi of the Month Branch appears on the Heavenly Stem, then the structure of the Bazi Chart is formed by this sub-Qi. The person's core character is represented by the Ten Gods of this sub-Qi.

When the main Qi of the Month Branch appears on the Heavenly Stem, then the structure of the Bazi Chart is formed by this main Qi. The person's core character is represented by the Ten Gods of this main Qi.

If there is no main Qi or sub-Qi of the Month Branch appearing on the Heavenly Stem, then the structure of the Bazi Chart follows the main Qi. The person's core character is represented by the Ten Gods of this main Qi.

Special Facial Features - 鬼眉 Beware of Ghost Eyebrows!

Just like how a good haircut can change a person's appearance for the better, eyebrow grooming can also help a person look fresher and more attractive. However, beauticians are limited in what they can do with your eyebrows. They can only trim and groom the eyebrows to emphasize your eyes and enhance other facial features. They can't really change the essential shape of your eyebrows.

Eyebrows tell a lot about a person's personality. So if you come across a person with Ghost Eyebrows, beware!

What are Ghost Eyebrows?

These are very short eyebrows. The length of the eyebrow is shorter than the eye. The eyebrows are thick and curved or curly. They are also upturned and scattered.

People with Ghost Eyebrows have crooked hearts and minds. They are often mischievous and behave outside the norm. Ghost Eyebrows are regarded as fierce and negative. People with this type of eyebrows are active, fiery, passionate and rebellious. People with Ghost Eyebrows are usually not very intelligent. They always act rashly based on emotions without giving much thought to the consequences.

So, what is the fate of people with Ghost Eyebrows?

Because of their personality, they have difficulty staying in a job. They lack perseverance and determination. They are often motivated by the wrong intentions. They often leave things unfinished as they get bored very fast. It is difficult for this type of personality to maintain a stable income to support a family. Ultimately the fate of a person with Ghost Eyebrows lies in the hands of manipulators or the influences of external circumstances. A person with Ghost Eyebrows also has a tendency to steal, even if they are not lacking in money.

If they tried to be normal like everyone else, they will meet with difficulties and challenges because of their narrow-mindedness and selfishness. In addition, people with this type of eyebrows will meet with a life-threatening event between the ages of 31 and 43.

Ghost Eyebrows on a Female Face

People with this type of eyebrows are generally not satisfied in life. They have an unruly, fierce and cruel nature. This type of eyebrows is seen among criminals such as thieves or bandits. People with Ghost Eyebrows are possessive, arrogant, vengeful and uncaring of others. They have a strong desire to be close to others due to their insecurity, but people tend to avoid them. Thus, it is very inauspicious to find this type of eyebrows on a female face.

Ghost Eyebrows matched with different types of eyes

Ghost Eyebrows are worse when seen with the following types of eyes on a person's face:

1. 车轮眼 Wheel shaped-eye

As the name suggests, this type of eye is always moving like a wheel. The Wheel shaped-eye is also known as 鸡眼 or Chicken Eye. There is a Chinese saying, "Meet with people talk like people, meet with ghosts talk like ghosts." This statement aptly describes a person with Wheel shaped-eyes. They will smile with you, and will not hesitate to betray or back-stab you.

2. 三白眼 Three White Eye

A small pupil located near the top of the eye will form three white areas in the eye, at the left, right and bottom parts of the eyes. This is called Three White Eye. Some people have small pupils that are located at the centre of the eye, revealing four white areas in the whites of the eye. People with these types of eyes have strong personalities, are extremely private, insidious and cunning. You have to be on your guard around these people.

3. 三角眼 Triangle Shaped-eye

People with triangle shaped-eyes are fierce, lonely, and ruthless. They possess suspicious natures and no credibility. They tend to try to steal other people's credit and fortunes. It is difficult to get along with this type of people. If you see a triangular shaped-eyed person around you, be more careful in your speech. Their sensitive and suspicious personalities take offence easily. You may unwittingly become their enemy.

It is best for people with Ghost Eyebrows to engage or work as butchers or soldiers, otherwise they will easily go down the wrong path or into a life of crime.

The Activation and Cultivation of Deities

In all our articles about Fa Qi Men, we have mentioned that in order to get what you want, and your wishes fulfilled, one has to get into an “alpha state of mind”. We have also given tips and methods on how to get into this state.

So, what is an alpha state of mind?

Scientifically, it is explained as where the brain operates at partial conscious awareness and partial subconscious predominance at the same time, in cycles between 9Hz & 14Hz. From my experience and understanding, it simply means that one's mind is relaxed. It is a state where you are in a mild daydream or light relaxation.

Do you remember a time when you were very focused on something, or so engrossed in doing something that you lose track of time and the activities happening around you? This is an alpha state of mind. But you may find that when you deliberately try to get into this state of mind to make a wish, it is difficult to focus, and you are unsure about whether you are actually in the right state of mind.

Each person's Qi Men Destiny Chart has his or her own personal Destiny Palace marked by a direction based on his or her Day Master. That Palace contains your own unique Destiny Deity or Guardian Angel. There are all together Ten Deities under the realm of Universe in Fa Qi Men studies. In this issue, we will show you how to activate and cultivate the Nine Heaven Deity. This will be beneficial whether or not the Nine Heaven is your Guardian Angel. When you are connected strongly and intuitively with your Guardian Angel, you do not have to go into the alpha state of mind to make wishes. This makes wish making a lot easier.

Nine Earth Deity

Keyword: Healing and abundance

The Nine Earth Deity's special abilities come from healing and creating abundance. Those who have this Deity as their Guardian Angel have the potential to attract and create abundance. What they feel, they will get. On one extreme, the Nine Earth's influence can result in being too contented, complacent even. On the other hand, when the Nine Earth denotes blessings from Mother Earth, their kindness and love will be returned in kind. Individuals with the Nine Earth Deity as their Guardian Angel should stay optimistic and happy and cultivate an abundance mindset. The key to achieving more of what you want lies in your ability to genuinely feel that there is more than enough for everyone or the world.

Wishes will be more easily fulfilled, and you will get results faster when you ask your Destiny Deity for help. Here are some fun ways to activate and cultivate your Nine Earth Deity on a daily basis.

1. Make a wish in the direction of your Destiny Palace

Each person has a strong connection to the energy of the Universe in a certain direction based on Fa Qi Men practices. This direction is the direction of your Destiny Palace. Your Guardian Angel or Destiny Deity resides at your Destiny Palace. When you make wishes with your back to this direction, wishes will be fulfilled more easily. Every time you make a wish in the direction of your Destiny Palace, you are activating and cultivating the Qi that connects you to the Universe.

2. Meditate and focus on the Heart chakra

The Nine Earth Deity represents a person's kindness and ability to heal. The Anahata or heart chakra signifies "unhurt." This chakra is the source of your love, compassion and kindness. This chakra is also associated with healing. The heart chakra can be made more powerful through meditation, yoga and other spiritual practices. Meditate on sending compassion to yourself. Show appreciation for yourself, and give yourself the love that you want others to give you. Then, spread that compassion to those around you.

3. Harness the Power of Mother Earth

There are many ways to connect yourself to Mother Earth.

a) Food is your source of energy.

Food can indirectly affect how you work, think and connect to others. Eat healthily. Eat a lot of green vegetables. The nutrition and minerals contained in vegetables are drawn from Mother Earth. Green vegetables are great for the heart chakra too. This includes broccoli, kale, chard, and other leafy greens.

b) Make contact with Mother Earth.

Walking barefoot outdoors, sitting or working on the grass will transfer the energy from the ground into the body. Let Mother Earth charge your body with abundance.

c) Bring nature indoors.

Crystals and stones are the best forms of Mother Earth's energy. Keep some beautiful crystals at home to connect with Mother Earth. Make sure the crystals are positively energized. Otherwise, bring in some potted plants firmly planted in soil.

4. Start from a place of love

Start from a place of wholeness, love and care. Begin with knowing and loving yourself. The spirit of your intention will invite abundance.

5. Practice non-attachment

Why? Because if you cling to something strongly, it denotes a sense of scarcity. The universe will respond in kind. Any form of attachment repels abundance while detachment effortlessly attracts it.

6. Embracing Change

Change is an integral part of life. You need to do something different to move ahead. Even if change can be challenging

Nine Earth Energy - Tourmaline

A heated black tourmaline is used to balance extremes and dispel negative energy. A rich black colour contains a large amount of iron. It has strong links to the earth's magnetic field.

Black tourmaline stones can deflect potential harm and are used for calming nervous tension. The stone is said to be able to aid in balancing both brain hemispheres, enabling the user to transcend the mundane and achieve unity with cosmos.

or difficult to navigate, embrace and accept it. This will help you build a strong abundance mindset.

7. Be happy for others

People who have an abundance mindset are optimists. They are genuinely happy about others' success, achievements and material gains because they know that they too will have similar experiences one day.

8. Reflexology Foot Path

Walking on a reflexology footpath made of soft and smooth river rocks is a good way to connect to Mother Earth. It is designed to massage and stimulate acupressure points on the soles of the feet, which are connected to the various energy meridians of the body. It not only heals your body, but also unblocks stagnated meridians that are stopping you from creating abundance.

9. Surround yourself with positive people

People who manifest abundance effortlessly are surrounded by positive people who always see abundance in the world. This is because they make a conscious decision to surround themselves with optimists who can inspire them to achieve more. They stay away from toxic friends.

10. Stop the 'negative money' mindset

Some of the common negative mindsets we often hear or are being taught are; "The love of money is the root of all evil."

"Money changes people."

"You have to work hard to make money."

"Wealthy people are evil and greedy."

"Rich people have terrible lives, and damaged relationships."

People who effortlessly attract abundance learn to interrupt these negative mindsets. They investigate the stories based on each person or circumstance to avoid falling for biased statements. Often, they choose to shift their thoughts to allow abundance to flow more easily.

We hope you have fun cultivating the Nine Earth Deity as your Guardian Angel! Stay tuned for more information on other Guardian Angels in our future issues.
